VANCOUVER IS ENRAGED OVER GOV'T ACTION

Mayor and Aldermen Protest Decision to Reduce Grants for Relief

LABOR COUNCIL TO SUPPORT CITY

VANCOUVER, Nov. 21.—Vancouver City Council's official protest at the Provincial Government's reduction of relief contributions to municipalities was forwarded to Victoria today.

"I am not satisfied to take this lying down," said Alderman Warner Loe, seconding Alderman Walker Deptford's resolution. Other aldermen were equally indignant at what was termed an unwarranted imposition on British Columbia's cities and towns.

Mayor L. D. Taylor said to newspapermen later that he has just about decided that you can't get anywhere with that bunch by negotiation.

TIME FOR HALT

"If they (the Government) get away with one piece of business like this, they will try to get away with something else. They passed the buck on to municipalities this year in the shape of increased social service charges, and it's time they called a halt."

"I have concluded," His Worship continued, "that it's also time we had government by the people for the people, rather than by the politicians for the politicians."

The mayor and other members of the council took sharp issue with Hon. J. W. Jones, Minister of Finance, in his statement that in cases where municipalities feel this (the new relief rates effective December 1) is not enough and that more must be paid to prevent hardship, then the municipalities must make up the difference themselves. We say this is a municipal, not a Government, responsibility.

PROMISE SUPPORT

A. J. Pilkington, city financial adviser, instilled the effect of the Government's new relief policy during a discussion of the rent-paying policy at a special meeting of the council today with the Real Estate Exchange, Trades and Labor Council and associated property owners' representatives.

Before the meeting adjourned, delegates from the Trades Council and the exchange promised that their principals will support the City Council's protest at Victoria.

BURSAR HELPED BY ACCOUNTANT

Former Manitoba University Board Chairman Shifts Blame on Governments

WINNIPEG, Nov. 21 (CP).—Shortages in the University of Manitoba investment funds were caused through John A. Machray failing in his trust, and his accountant, the late R. S. Shanks, helping him to do it, Isaac Pitblado, K.C., former chairman of the board, declared in concluding his evidence before a board of inquiry today. Mr. Pitblado occupied the stand all day and will return for cross-examination tomorrow.

Mr. Pitblado repeated his evidence given earlier in the day, that it was impossible for Machray to withdraw or use university trust funds without the connivance of Shanks, who was secretary of the University Land Board and looked after all university trust account books.

NOT WRONG ACTION

The former chairman also told the board he did not think the board had done an improper thing in appointing Machray, now in penitentiary for theft of college funds, as bursar while he also was a member of the board. Rather, he submitted, the Government should not have reappointed him to the board if such was contrary to the statutes as claimed by R. F. McWilliams, K.C., counsel for the commission, which resumed its sittings after a two-week recess.

OWN AUDITORS BEST

He also said he believed if the board had been permitted to engage its own auditors instead of those from the Comptroller-General's department, defalcations in the accounts would have been discovered the year of their origin.

DRIVER WAS BLINDED

MEDICAL LAKE, Wash., Nov. 21 (AP).—Hit by a truck as he walked on the highway near here, Kenneth Sweet, six, was killed tonight. Charles Minick, the driver, said he was blinded by the lights of an automobile. He was not held.

Johnny Rowland Much Improved; Danger Is Over

JOHNNY Rowland, Rugby player for the 16th Scottish team, who was injured in last Saturday's game, was reported out of danger by St. Joseph's Hospital attendants yesterday.

Rowland suffered injuries to his neck and for a time concern was felt by his friends. On Sunday, however, he showed a marked improvement and it now seems that his injuries are as serious as at first thought.

REFERENDUM IS ILLEGAL

Counsel Advises City Against Taking Vote on Government Sweepstakes

VICTORIA, Nov. 21.—Victoria City Council is not empowered to submit a referendum only on matters that come within the control of the council. Inasmuch as sweepstakes were matters governed by the Criminal Code, a Federal act, the solicitors did not think the council had any right to submit a plebiscite to the people.

VANCOUVER'S POSITION

While the scope of Vancouver's charter is not known here, it is felt by some members of the council that Vancouver will find itself in the same position as Victoria in connection with its proposed referendum on the same question.

Alderman R. T. Williams, sponsor of the sweepstakes referendum, regretted that the city was not empowered to secure a vote on the question and bowed to the decision of counsel. He said, however, that he would find some other means of obtaining an expression of opinion from the citizens on the subject.

Salmon Pact Ratification To Be Delayed

OTTAWA, Nov. 21 (CP).—In view of the present political situation in the United States the Government of Canada does not consider it an appropriate time to enter into discussions with that country looking to the ratification of the Sockeye Salmon Treaty.

Prime Minister, informed the House of Commons today.

The Prime Minister was answering a question put by Hon. Ian Mackenzie, Liberal member for Centre Vancouver. The Prime Minister assured the House that the Government is in close touch with the situation.

Sees No Need of Gloom in Name

TORONTO, Nov. 21.—Paying a visit to the annual bazaar of the Toronto Hospital for Incurables, Saturday, with the Countess of Beatrix, the Governor-General remarked he could see nothing gloomy about the institution except the name.

"Do these people know the name of this hospital? Why don't you change it?" His Excellency asked Miss E. N. Cook, superintendent. He suggested it be changed to either Royal Louise or Princess Louise, who opened the institution.

Premier of France Escapes Harm When Track Is Dynamited

Possible Tragedy Averted When Guards Discover Damaged Track an Hour Before Train Due—Seven Breton Autonomists Suspected of Plotting

PARIS, Nov. 21 (AP).—Premier Edouard Herriot and a large official party arrived in Paris safe and sound today despite an apparent attempt to blow up their special train in Brittany during the night.

The railroad track was blown up at Ingrandes, fifteen miles from Nantes, early yesterday, but before the special train reached the spot and in time for section men to flag down the train.

The Premier was unaware of the violence that might have caused his movement to be delayed in Brittany ever since it was joined with France in 1532 and has maintained early Celtic traditions for five centuries.

The Celtic language is still spoken in lower Brittany, and the area is much like Wales in Great Britain. Unfrightened by the excitement, the Premier went ahead with his scheduled addresses at Nantes, celebrating the 460th anniversary of the union of Brittany and France.

Track guards heard two explosions and rushed to the scene in time to stop the Premier's train and avoid possible catastrophe.

Rails in both directions at Ingrandes were blasted. The explosion took place more than an hour before the Premier's train was due. Police were inclined to believe that an erroneous schedule of the Premier's train, published in Nantes newspapers, fooled the criminals.

Traffic on the right-of-way was immediately stopped and repair gangs were rushed to the scene. The special train was stopped some distance away and the Premier, who was asleep, was unaware of the reason for the delay until after he had reached Nantes.

Investigating Seaway Pact

HERE is what the camera saw as it peeped into the committee chambers at Washington, where the solons are conducting a probe into the St. Lawrence waterway pact with Canada. Senator William E. Borah of Idaho (centre), chairman of the foreign relations committee, and Senator Robert La Follette of Wisconsin are shown as they listened intently to Peter G. Ten Eyck, president of the New York State Waterways Association, give his reasons for opposing the ratification of the treaty.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21 (AP).—Prepared for tomorrow's momentous debate with Franklin D. Roosevelt, President Hoover tonight held ready to place upon that conference table a definite programme, possibly to include recommendations for revival of the war debt commission.

Even as the chief executive rounded out his plans in a series of parleys with his second and advisors, however, renewed opposition to the recreation of the debt commission resounded.

Secretary Mills, who will assist the President tomorrow, conferred twice with him today. Whether Mr. Hoover may abandon his previous sponsorship of re-establishing the debt commission in the face of heavy Congressional opposition, the Treasury Secretary would not say.

Details of the chief executive's plans for dealing with the foreign debt tangle were as closely guarded as ever as he conferred for more than four hours with Secretary Mills and even longer with Secretary.

Hitler's Mandate To Form Cabinet Too Restricted

Unable to Accept Conditions Imposed in Written Memorandum Received From President von Hindenburg—Further Communication Awaited With Interest by Nation

BERLIN, Nov. 21 (AP).—After nine years of striving, Adolf Hitler today received a mandate to form a Cabinet, but it was under conditions which, immediately at least, he could not accept. The Nazi leader had a fifteen-minute interview with the aged field marshal in which, a Government communique said, he "declared himself most emphatically to the President of the Reich that his party could co-operate only in a Government led by himself."

The President handed him a written memorandum, setting forth that certain things in the Reich must not be tampered with if the door to the way for an authoritative presidential cabinet under Hitler leadership still could be established, he said.

The Nazi leaders' advisers remain hopeful that President von Hindenburg would consider wholly reasonable their chief's demand as the bravest, the largest party in Germany to be invested with the highest political power in the Reich.

Some of the conditions set forth in the Von Hindenburg memorandum were a declaration there must be no tampering with the Reich's emergency decrees, the Federal commission-ship over Prussia, the foreign policy, and Article 48 of the constitution, which provides the Government with drastic powers to deal with emergencies.

UP TO PRESIDENT AGAIN

It was Hitler's belief that no statesman with his hands thus bound could assume responsibility for the situation, therefore, he turned the question over to the President, who again to President von Hindenburg, whose answer to the Hitler letter tomorrow is awaited with greatest interest by all Germany.

In today's interview the President also insisted that a Hitler cabinet would have to be backed by "a majority, or almost a majority" of the Reichstag. This demand entailed the question of negotiations with other political parties, as the Nazis, although the strongest party in the Reichstag, are considerably short of a majority.

VETERAN STATESMAN LAID TO HIS REST

SEATTLE, Nov. 21 (AP).—Washington State and the nation paid final tribute to the memory of Senator Wesley L. Jones today.

Representatives of the State and Federal governments joined with the family and other friends in the impressive funeral services for the veteran statesman, who had represented this state in the national capitol for more than thirty years.

The senator died Saturday.

Flying Mollisons Plan Cape to London Flight

LONDON, Nov. 21 (AP).—Amy Johnson and her husband, Captain J. A. Mollison, seeking new worlds to conquer, now are contemplating a dual attempt in separate planes to break the Capetown-to-London record.

The decision rests with Amy, the captain said tonight, revealing he had cabled her asking whether it would be all right if he flew to Capetown in an attempt to break the England-to-the-Cape record she set last week. Then they could fly their planes back, trying to break their records over again.

Mollison said he thought his wife would agree to the project.

Suppose something happens to her on the way back from Capetown, he said. "Maybe I could drop down and help her."

London newspaper reporters to whom he mentioned the plan agreed it was a "very stout idea."

MAY SUGGEST REVIVAL OF COMMISSION

President Hoover Has Definite Programme for War Debt Discussion

WILL CONFER WITH ROOSEVELT TODAY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21 (AP).—President Hoover tonight held ready to place upon that conference table a definite programme, possibly to include recommendations for revival of the war debt commission.

Even as the chief executive rounded out his plans in a series of parleys with his second and advisors, however, renewed opposition to the recreation of the debt commission resounded.

ASKS SUSPENSION

Meanwhile, also, another twist was added to the already complex debt problem as Czechoslovakia deposited at the State Department—alongside those of Great Britain, France and Belgium—a note asking suspension of its $1,500,000 payment due December 15.

Secretary Mills, who will assist the President tomorrow, conferred twice with him today. Whether Mr. Hoover may abandon his previous sponsorship of re-establishing the debt commission in the face of heavy Congressional opposition, the Treasury Secretary would not say.

DETAILS CLOSELY GUARDED

Details of the chief executive's plans for dealing with the foreign debt tangle were as closely guarded as ever as he conferred for more than four hours with Secretary Mills and even longer with Secretary.

It was taken as certain, however, that Mr. Hoover will speak of European disarmament in close connection with his talk of debts. The possibility was voiced unofficially this morning by a cabinet member, involving his own proposal for a one-third slash in world arms.

Says Small Number of Ports Best

LONDON, Nov. 21.—"All the Dominions have much to learn about port administration and finance. The task of acquiring this knowledge is an urgent one, for inefficient and expensive ports are almost everywhere," declares the current issue of The Shipping World, in a leading article captioned "Administration of Ports."

The paper declares that if Canada, New Zealand and Australia are to develop further, they will have to concentrate their attention on a small number of big ports, rather than on a big number of small ports.

VANCOUVER GIVEN MILLION DOLLARS

Property Leases at Point Grey Consolidated on Nine-Ten-Year Term

Part of a million-dollar gift by the Government to Vancouver in the course of the last few years, leases to extensive waterfront holdings at Point Grey, were consolidated by the Vancouver City Council. The property consists of Point Grey forestland in the University area, extending for a considerable distance along the waterfront in a strip between the highway and the sea.

The consolidated lease will have a life of the longest component part, that is, ninety-nine years. The value of the property is not cited, but it is believed worth several hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Assistance with bridge construction to the tune of $200,000, and other benefits, have been conferred upon the Mainland centre since the present ministry took office. Not least of these was special treatment in the last few years in regard to unemployment relief, in recognition of the city being a concentration place for unemployed transients of the West.

As one Government spokesman recently put it, Vancouver has benefited directly to the extent of at least $1,000,000 in various ways since the present ministry came into power.

Stabilization Of Exchange Is Necessity

NEWCASTLE, Nov. 21.—Rt. Hon. Walter Runciman, President of the Board of Trade, urged the stabilization of international exchange in an address here today, admitting he spoke on behalf of the British Government.

Everybody who has any dealings abroad, he said, knows how difficult it is to obtain payment with foreign exchange under artificial control as at present. Without such stabilization as he advocates, all international business comes to "something in the nature of a gamble," he said.

PACT ADVANCES ANOTHER STEP

Anglo-Canadian Treaty Passed Through Committee of House

OTTAWA, Nov. 21 (CP).—Another step in the short but troubled life of the Anglo-Canadian trade treaty was reached in the House of Commons tonight when the last clause passed through committee.

Without division or undue excitement, the bill implementing the treaty was held for third reading.

As an anticlimax, Rt. Hon. Mackenzie King, Liberal leader, and Hon. J. L. Baskin, the party's financial critic, leveled a last-minute attack on the treaty. It boosted Canada's tariff too high, they said. It would maintain those tariffs for five years, irrespective of conditions, and Canada received no guarantee the United Kingdom would not give the same preferences to other countries.

The day was spent reviewing in committee the last eleven articles of the treaty, some of them contentious. Before the treaty finally is ratified it will be necessary to review in committee of ways and means all tariff changes—probably a rough matter—and give third and final reading to the bill. It will then go to the Senate.

FAVORABLE BALANCE OF TRADE GOES UP

WELLINGTON, New Zealand, Nov. 21 (CP).—Latest figures reveal New Zealand's favorable trade balance for the ten months just concluded at £12,000,000, as compared to £8,000,000 for the corresponding period of last year.

Liberal Leader Is Rebuked in House For Changed Front

Prime Minister Recalls That Mr. King Negotiated Treaties With Several Nations Binding the Dominion to Specific Rates for Many Years

OTTAWA, Nov. 21 (CP).—Final debate on the long list of articles included in the provisions of the Canada-United Kingdom trade treaty which have been discussed in the Commons committee before the bill emerged tonight was on Article 22. This article provides for continuation of the treaty for five years.

Rt. Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King entered into agreements with foreign countries, all providing for certain periods of time. Czechoslovakia, France, the West Indies and Belgium all had signed trade pacts with the former Liberal Government to endure for stated periods.

What was the difference, asked Mr. Bennett, between four years and five?

There were agreements and agreements, contended Mr. King. The Czechoslovakia agreement did not impose additional taxation on Canada for that period of years.

The present treaty was really a means of increasing the tariff of this country by a subterfuge, and the Opposition did not propose to tolerate that.

DUEL OF ARGUMENT RESUMED AT SITTING OF LEAGUE COUNCIL

Chinese Representative Sees Nothing but Good in Lytton Report While Japanese Pleads for Acceptance of His Country's "Policy"—Hostilities Continue in Area of Contention

GENEVA, Switzerland, Nov. 21 (AP).—Examination by the League of Nations Council of the Manchurian problem in the light of the Lytton report began today with a sharp duel of debate, in which Japan's spokesman denied his Government had broken any of its international obligations and the representative of China declared that as a result of Japanese invasion "the ruthless slaughter of Chinese citizens and the wanton destruction of Chinese property are still going on."

From reserved seats the Lytton commissioners heard Yosuke Matsukata, for Japan, reject their finding that Japan's military action in Manchuria was unjustified, while Dr. Wellington Koo, for China, upheld their conclusion.

PLEADS FOR PATIENCE

The Japanese spokesman pleaded for patience and for acceptance of Japan's policy. The Chinese delegate appeared for "redress for China's wrong."

The Japanese spokesman said that in the Mukden attack of September 18, 1931 (the incident which precipitated the conflict), the Japanese acted justifiably in self-defense. Dr. Koo agreed with the Lytton commissioners that this was not so.

The council adjourned until Wednesday afternoon to permit its members to study the Chinese and Japanese declarations.

JAPANESE DIFFICULTIES

MUKDEN, Nov. 21 (AP).—The Japanese position in Northwest Manchuria was becoming increasingly difficult today, with roughly one-fourth of the whole of the new State of Manchukuo in the hands of insurgent Chinese.

General Su Ping Wen, formerly a member of the new Manchukuo regime, revolted recently, with the help of some 30,000 other Chinese irregulars, took a vast area that lies against the Soviet border.

CAPTIVES RELEASED

TSITSIHAR, Manchuria, Tuesday, Nov. 22 (AP).—Forty-two more Japanese captives, mostly women and children, have been released by General Su Ping Wen, who is leading a revolt in Northwest Manchuria against the Manchukuo Government. It was learned here today.

The released party reached Mukden today. The Chinese war lord was still holding 203 Japanese at Manchuria, near the Soviet border.

STOOL PIGEONS HAVE WING CUT

Attorney-General's Department Frowns on Use of Suave Informers

Continuing a steady campaign to discourage the use of stool pigeons, who often incline to crime rather than prevent it, the Attorney-General's Department yesterday frowns on the use of suave informers.

Representations laid before Attorney-General today by the trial judge showed that three stool pigeons had called on premises occupied by a Vancouver couple. During the husband's absence, they had asked for beer, and pressed 85 cents on the woman, later informing on her in connection with their transaction. The actual offence took place on October 4 but before that, certain of the informers had frequented the place, it is alleged, and secured the confidence of its operators. The Crown now remits all but $50 of the fine.

Blast Kills One Man and Wrecks House

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 21 (AP).—An unidentified mail deliveryman was killed today when an explosion wrecked the house of Samuel Simons. The blast was so strong that neighbors several doors away were thrown from their beds and plaster and pieces of glass were hurled a quarter of a block.

Simons, his wife and three children left last Friday for the country, to be away until Thanksgiving Day. The man who was killed was said by neighbors to have been in the house without permission or knowledge of the owners.

RELIEF COSTS WOULD BE CUT

Mayor Says New Scale, if Adopted, Would Reduce Expenses by $79,600

Cost of direct relief for married men will be $79,600 less than this year if the new scale of allowances announced by the Provincial Government is adopted by municipalities. Mayor David Leeming stated at last night's meeting of the City Council.

His remarks were occasioned by the filing of a report from the

Trio to Perform on Living Music Day

ALFRED PRESCOTT will know in musical circles throughout Victoria, where tonight's trio will play during the "Living Music Day and Shopper's Festival" scheduled for Thursday, December 1. Mr. Prescott's trio will be one of many orchestras and bands which will play in different parts of Victoria's business section on "Living Music Day and Shopper's Festival."

executive of the Union of B.C. Municipalities in connection with recent conferences with the Provincial Cabinet on unemployment relief.

PROTEST SCALE

The Mayor said that under the new scale the allowance for a man and his wife would be $17.50 a month. This allowance the Union of British Columbia Municipalities was strongly protesting as totally inadequate to meet the needs of those out of work.

Hon. J. W. Jones, Minister of Finance, however, stated the scale would not be reconsidered and that the Government's announcement was final, the mayor declared.

If the scale is adopted by the city, then the cost of relief for next year, based on the present number of those on relief, will amount to $257,040, as against $337,715. The question involved, however, was not one of how much the city should spend, but how much destitute families should be given and how much the city could afford to give without impairing the health of its less fortunate citizens, and without placing an impossible burden upon its taxpayers.

For the purpose of considering the Provincial Government's scheme, the report was referred to the relief committee, which directs the administration of the city relief department.

dom might default payment appeared not to have been entertained for a moment in any client in the city.

Other problems facing Parliament and the treatment they are likely to receive from the Government will be indicated in brief outline by the King's Speech from the Throne.

Efforts to reduce the number of unemployed in the country may be linked to a certain extent with problems surrounding agriculture. Late last session when the House of Commons formed a sort of national committee on unemployment, several members, including the veteran Liberal statesman, David Lloyd George, expressed the opinion Britain would never get rid of unemployment without a vigorous back-to-the-land movement, which would send at least 1,000,000 men to work on the soil or in industries supplementary to farming.

Tomorrow's opening will be marked by the usual display of ceremonial and formality traditionally associated with this event.

NO POLITICS IN BOARD SELECTION

Tariff Commission Members to Be Carefully and Fairly Chosen, States Bennett

OTTAWA, Nov. 21 (CP).—Political considerations will be cast aside in the selection of men for the tariff board, Premier R. B. Bennett promised the House of Commons today.

"Having regard for the size of the country," the Prime Minister said, "I am sure it would be desirable to endeavor to secure representation from other than one part of the country and, if it is possible, to insure that other than one school of thought is represented. I shall endeavor to avoid purely political considerations."

The House passed four articles in the Anglo-Canada Trade Treaty governing the functions of the tariff board. It was established in 1931, but the members were never appointed. The Prime Minister indicated it might be necessary to increase the salaries stipulated in the 1931 legislation—$15,000 for the chairman and $10,000 each for the two commissioners.

MISSING FLYER FOUND IN CAMP

WINNIPEG, Nov. 21 (CP).—Missing since last Thursday, when he was reported to have been flying over the lake near Lake George, seventy miles northeast of here, Charley "Pop" Grant, commodore of the Winnipeg Flying Club, was found safe at his lake cabin by an aerial search party today.

Deep snowdrifts on the lake prevented Mr. Grant taking off for the return flight to the city. He had spent the intervening days exploring and shooting in surrounding bush country, he told his rescuers. He is expected to return to the city late today.

SPECULATING ON SECRET MEETING

Saskatchewan Premier and Opposition Leader Held Conference but Make No Statement

REGINA, Nov. 21.—Political observers were speculating tonight on the significance of the secret conference Sunday between Premier J. T. M. Anderson and James G. Gardiner, Liberal leader.

There was little light in the official announcement that the conference had been held to discuss emergency aid when it was necessary to the Premier summoning his bitter political enemy, the Leader of the Opposition, into conference. The meeting definitely foreshadowed a greater measure of co-operation between the Conservative and Liberal leaders in the coming session of the Legislature.

The only obvious fact about the conference appeared to be that it had been a success. Premier Anderson submitted good-naturedly to questions on the meeting, but his only answer was, "That is all we have to say."

Weather in Strange Mood

RECENT weather conditions do not seem to have any rhyme or reason. In Western Canada the mercury has been around and below freezing. At Churchill, on Hudson Bay, the temperature has been fairly mild, about 16 degrees above zero. In States south of Ontario people have been slushing about in nearly eight inches of snow. The car shown in the above picture had to be shoveled out.

WANT DECORATION OF STREETS OF VICTORIA DURING FESTIVE WEEK

The Junior Chamber of Commerce will go into the matter of a move suggested by Alderman John A. Worthington, which has for its object the encouraging of decorating Christmas trees along the streets of the city over the festive season. The matter was placed before the directors of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday, and in turn referred to the Junior Chamber for investigation.

P. E. George, president of the Junior body, agreed to take the matter up with his directors at a meeting this evening.

Alderman W. T. Straith said that the attempt had been made some years before in connection with the matter while he was president of the Junior Chamber. The Government had been intended in illuminating the Sequoia tree in front of the Parliament Buildings, and the Empress Hotel had done the same. Some trees in front of that building, he felt that those directly profiting in the work might be encouraged to offer some prizes in this respect.

SHAWNIGAN LAKE, Nov. 21.—A successful card evening was held in the S.L.A.A. Prizes were given to the winners of the various games.

The only obvious fact about the conference appeared to be that it had been a success. Premier Anderson submitted good-naturedly to questions on the meeting, but his only answer was, "That is all we have to say."

DEBATE LIVELY ON FRANCHISE

Indian Round Table Conference Tackles Problem of New Constitution

LONDON, Nov. 21 (CP).—The third Indian round table conference today held animated discussion of questions connected with the franchise in the new constitution it is seeking to draft for India.

The conference pointed out the franchise committee which worked in India last summer under the chairmanship of Lord Lothian reported adult suffrage in election of members to the provincial legislatures was a present impracticable and recommended extension of the franchise by direct vote.

ACCEPTED RECOMMENDATIONS

The conference generally expressed the opinion the committee's recommendations should be accepted and the essential basis of the franchise should be proper qualifications as proposed by the committee but subject to such modifications in details as might prove necessary.

It agreed its aim should be to enfranchise 10 per cent of the depressed classes in each province by adopting differential qualifications from among those proposed by the Lothian committee in the light of varying conditions in each province.

WOMEN'S VOTE TODAY

General discussion on qualifications of women for the vote was postponed until tomorrow. The proposed general qualifications would enfranchise only a relatively small percentage of women.

The conference has yet to consider whether special strengthening of the women's vote will be necessary.

Attempt to Burn Hall of Masons

CHILLIWACK, Nov. 21.—Two unsuccessful attempts to burn the Chinese Masonic Hall at Chinatown, about two miles from Chilliwack, were made Saturday evening. Coal oil had been thrown on the doors and charred paper was found, but the green wood of the new building and dampness frustrated the attempts.

Police here are of the opinion that the work was that of other Chinese.

MEXICO SUITABLE FOR DOUGHBOYS

Land Agent of Sect Surmises Change Will Be Made When Verigin Free

WINNIPEG, Nov. 21 (CP).—Doughboys of Canada are "wandering in the wilderness," detained from entering their newest promised land by imprisonment of their deeply-scarred leader, Peter Verigin, J. M. Hackney, of St. Paul, Minn., commissioned by the sect to procure land in Mexico where Verigin followers may set up their new community, said today on his return from Prince Albert.

Mr. Hackney surmised that "immediately Mr. Verigin is set at liberty, a change will be made. If it is the desire of the greater part, if not all, of his followers, it will take place."

In Mexico, he believed, there would be no trouble for these people because they would be at liberty to do as they pleased, following their own code of laws and behavior.

BANKER WILL STAND TRIAL

Judge Orders Ralph W. Walters Returned to the United States

Ralph W. Walters, forty-year-old Seattle stockbroker, whose private fortune was shattered in the crash of stocks that sent his companies into liquidation in 1930, causing losses to speculative stockholders, was ordered extradited to the United States by Judge Peter S. Lampman, here, yesterday, to stand trial in the State of Washington on a charge of false pretences, which is contained in a warrant of grand larceny.

Walters will be taken to Okalla prison farm, where he will remain for fifteen days during which period he will have an opportunity to make application for a writ of habeas corpus. If no application is made at the end of the fifteen-day period, he will be surrendered to the American authorities.

TWO-HOUR ARGUMENT

The trial of Walters ended at noon yesterday after Stuart Henderson, his counsel, had made a two-hour argument for dismissal, most of which was taken up with a review of the evidence submitted to the court during the hearing, which has lasted for several weeks. C. L. Harrison, counsel for the State of Washington, completed his argument in less than fifteen minutes, after which Judge Lampman made the order for commitment.

Charles E. Walters, seventy-year-old former president of the Bankers' Holding Corporation and father of Ralph W. Walters, is now at Okalla awaiting surrender to the authorities on a charge of false pretences. Both Walters are committed on the same information, and the evidence was practically the same in both hearings.

ARRESTED IN SEPTEMBER

The Walters were arrested in September on telegraphic instructions from the United States officials. The charge of grand larceny involved false pretences, it being alleged that the Walters sold to the Bankers' Holding Corporation in the State of Washington for representing the corporation owned four banks in less than fifteen minutes, after which Judge Lampman made the order for commitment.

It was alleged at the hearing that the stock of the four banks controlled by the corporation had been pledged with other banks to provide security for loans to the Bankers' Holding Corporation, of which Charles E. Walters was the president, and his son, Ralph W. Walters, vice-president.

COMPANY FAILS

Failure of one of the four banks in control of the corporation brought about a collapse of the financial structure of the Walters' organization, which resulted in steps being taken to wind up the companies in which they were interested. Charles E. Walters and his son remained in Seattle until the latter part of 1931, when they came to Victoria.

Write against the two were issued in King County, Washington, on the information of Merton J. Moses, Auburn tobaccoist, who alleged he had purchased $2,450 worth of Bankers' Corporation stock from the Walters, and the element of false pretence alleged was that he was told the corporation "owned" the four banks.

CALL MANY WITNESSES

Scores of witnesses, including lawyers from Washington, bankers and state officials, appeared during the hearings here, most of them coming from the United States. In order to determine whether a fugitive may be returned to the foreign country to stand trial on a criminal offence, an extradition commissioner is required to hear the evidence, and if there is sufficient evidence this would warrant the fugitive being placed on his trial if the offence upon which he was charged had been committed in Canada, a warrant of commitment must issue.

The Extradition Act requires that a person so committed shall be taken to an authorized prison to await removal to the foreign country to stand trial on a criminal offence. The application is made in the name of the President of the United States in this case.

WORKERS HELD NEED OF TIMES
Premier Tolmie, Hon. J. Hinchcliffe and Others in School Appeal

VANCOUVER, Nov. 21.—"What this country is going to need very soon is people who will work. We cannot all aspire to hitch our wagon to a star. By all means keep ambition bright and keen, but do not overlook the commonplace and everyday opportunities, the humdrum. Let us ask ourselves, are we training our young people along the proper lines, so that they will not only be glad to remain in the province, but to make the best of the opportunities?" said Premier Tolmie, in an address in support of Education Week here this evening.

The Premier spoke on a programme including addresses by Hon. Joshua Hinchcliffe, Ira D. Worth and others, in connection with the official opening of Education Week under the patronage of His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor.

TRAINING NECESSARY

"In my opinion it is impossible to stress too strongly the importance of training our young people along those lines which are likely to assist in the developing of the province, and which are most likely to develop as the province develops," the Premier continued. "Here we have a country enormously rich in natural resources, in lumber and minerals and fruit; a country whose basic industries will always be extractive. In other words, a country where labor is at the root of all progress and expansion. Are we bringing up our young people with that idea in mind, or are we bringing them up to look at a dollar's worth of overalls with a curling lip? There is something to be guarded against, let us be very, very careful not to breed a distaste for manual labor. Some of the finest men in British Columbia made their start in life in a dollar's worth of overalls. They learned from the ground up, learnt to obey before they learnt to command."

COUNTRY WITH FUTURE

"Our young people are enormously fortunate in growing up in a young country, a country which still has its life to live. The lines upon which this country will develop are all more or less apparent, and if our rising generation will concentrate upon them, and fit

CURFEW SOUNDS FOR BEER BOYS
Curtail Evenings and Nights of Kamloops and Victoria Youths

Not only were they soundly thrashed for their beer pranks, but the five boys subjected to the old-fashioned remedy of corporal punishment for frequenting beer parlors while under age, will forfeit their liberty in the evenings for the next few weeks, it became apparent at the Legislative Buildings yesterday.

In the Government's orders-in-council remitting fines of $300 in connection with four youths at Kamloops and one at Victoria, is set out the following undertaking, on the part of their parents:

Satisfactory assurances that these pledges will be carried out to the letter were laid in the hands of the department before the fines were remitted. In addition to the spankings, the boys also received lectures from police referees, under whose supervision the correction was stoutly applied by the parents concerned.

Other orders, accumulating during the absence last week of His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor, concerned a variety of matters. One recorded the resignation on account of ill health of Assistant Commissioner W. R. Dunwoody, of the Provincial Police. His place is taken by Assistant Commissioner T. W. S. Parsons, promoted from charge of the Vancouver Island division of the force.

Part of the Kamloops division of Yale was created an area for the control of the codlin moth.

Reid Lake and Tranquille Schools were placed in Class "D," rural school districts, and Menzies Bay in Class "A," for the purposes of provincial assistance.

At the request of the City Council of Fernie, the Government reduced a police magistrate's stipend there by 33-1/3 per cent. A fine of $50 was remitted to a Victoria interdict, due to distress.

NEW REGULATIONS
New regulations were passed under the Provincial Board of Health controlling shipment of oysters, clams and other shellfish from waters, unless a clean bill of health can be shown both for the bivalves and operators handling them in the trade.

Special permits will govern operations in some waters and stricter rules generally will apply to the trade.

MILK PRODUCERS AWAIT JUDGMENT
No Decision as to Marketing Possible Until Privy Council Reasons Are to Hand

No action will be taken by the milk committee of direction and the Lower Mainland milk producers in regard to their marketing problems, until the full text of the Privy Council judgment dismissing the Dairy Products Sales Adjustment Act is to hand, Hon. William Atkinson said yesterday.

Mr. Atkinson returned from a series of meetings with the milk producers, which he attended in the Fraser Valley.

"It would appear that the only course open now to the milk producers is one of voluntary co-operation. Farmers in the Valley have learned a bitter lesson in regard to prices on nearly all they raise, they are getting it in the neck," Mr. Atkinson affirmed.

The Government, he estimated, would wait the outcome of what is done by the producers themselves, before deciding its course in the matter. It has already appealed to the producers and distributors to use their best efforts to get together, in settlement of their own affairs.

Saanich Farmers Hear J. B. Grant
The monthly meeting of the South Saanich Farmers' Institute was held recently at the Temperance Hall, with W. D. Mitchell presiding. J. B. Grant was the speaker of the evening and addressed the gathering on marketing prospects in the Old Country and the future of the Okanagan apple crop.

Considerable business was dealt with, and a decision was made to hold a pruning class early in January. The annual country store, concert and dance was arranged for Friday, December 16, with the following committee in charge: W. McNally, George Malcolm, W. D. Mitchell, G. Spencer, D. Nimmo, E. Richardson and A. Sutherland. The committee will meet at the Temperance Hall, tonight, to discuss further plans for the dance.

FOUR MEETINGS ARE ARRANGED

Mayor David Leeming Plans Short but Intensive Campaign for Re-election

In answer to many requests as to when he would begin his campaign for re-election, Mayor David Leeming stated yesterday that "I am far too busy with the city's affairs to even think of an early campaign. My duties bind me to my office, and I shall be compelled to conduct a short but intensive campaign."

He said that he would be unable to take the public platform before next week, owing to the fact that unemployment relief problems and the city's budget were occupying most of his time at present.

However, four meetings for the Mayor have been arranged so far. He will speak at the meeting arranged by Alderman P. R. Brown, in the Chamber of Commerce, on November 29. At this meeting he will give an account of his stewardship, as also will Alderman Brown, who is chairman of the finance committee. All other aldermen, also, are expected to give a report of their work during the year.

Mayor Leeming will address a meeting to be held by the Victoria West Brotherhood on Tuesday, December 6, and on the following night, the eve of election, the Mayor will hold a rally meeting in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium. During the same week he will speak at a meeting to be held by the Foul Bay Community Association.

SEED AND BULB FAIR PLANNED
Arrangements for Event in Crystal Garden Are Well Advanced

The arrangements for the staging of the Seed and Bulb Fair in January are proceeding apace, according to the reports presented to the agricultural committee of the Chamber of Commerce, which met yesterday afternoon, with Richard Layritz in the chair in the absence of Rev. Montague Bruce.

Cecil Tiet, representing the Department of Agriculture, explained that the fair had not been held in Victoria since 1926, when it proved a great success. There was no reason why it should not be so again this year. Exhibits of grass seeds, grains, certified potatoes and bulbs have been promised from all over the province. There will be seventy classes of grains alone exhibited.

An endeavor was being made by the Government to have all the exhibits that would be entered from British Columbia at the World's Grain Congress and Exhibition in Regina next summer shown at the fair in Victoria in January.

Other details connected with the part which the Chamber of Commerce is taking in the fair were explained by Harold Palmer. The fair will be held in the Crystal

The teacher was telling his class about the conquest of Alexander the Great. He made the tale a stirring one. "When Alexander had conquered India," he said, "what do you think he did? Do you think he gave a great feast to celebrate his triumph? No; he sat down and wept!"

The little children seemed a little disappointed at this childish exhibition on the part of the hero; so the teacher continued: "Now, why do you think Alexander wept?" he asked.

Up went a little hand. "Well, Tommy?" said the teacher. "Please, sir," said Tommy, hesitatingly, "perhaps he didn't know the way back!"

High School Pupils Aim to "Beat Depression" and Educate Themselves

Starting about May 1, next year, Jack Roberts and Theodore "Ted" Charles, high school boys of Victoria, will commence a round-the-world journey on foot in an effort to "beat depression" and educate themselves by travel. The boys are now making necessary preliminary preparations.

Restless with the thought that life was available elsewhere, for greater knowledge of the world, the boys recently decided to undertake the trip to circumnavigate the earth on a ship. If the plans proceed without a hitch, the boys will leave the city in May and visit the following cities and countries in the three years: Vancouver, Seattle, San Francisco, D.C., New York, London, England, Ireland, Scotland, Wales, Spain, Southern France, Italy, Egypt, Palestine, Constantinople, Serbia, Greece, Turkey, Persia, India, Moscow, Odessa, Persia, India, Siam, Indo-China, Port Darwin, Australia, New Zealand, South America, Chile, Buenos Aires, Rio de Janeiro, Panama, San Francisco.

They anticipate reaching Chicago about the time of the World's Fair there, and spend their first Winter in Spain.

GIVES LAWYERS WIDE LATITUDE

Mr. Justice McDonald Wants Permanent Decision in Assessment Appeal

Lawyers who will be engaged in the City of Victoria-St. Louis College appeal before the Appeal Court of British Columbia will have the widest possible latitude to develop their arguments on law and will not be hindered or endangered by any technicalities of court procedure and the merits of the law.

This was made clear by Mr. Justice D. A. McDonald in Supreme Court chambers here yesterday morning when he assured both H. A. Macleod, president of the B.C. Teachers' Association, and C. H. O'Halloran, who is acting for the Bishop of Victoria, that all points of law and material used as evidence in the argument before him would be open to them in the Court of Appeal.

CONFIRMS ORDER

The question of right was raised when Macleod sought to be admitted to the order of Mr. Justice McDonald confirming his verbal judgment made during the past week when he lowered the state witness fee to $500.

APPEAL, $50,000 to $25,000. Mr. O'Halloran feared he would be unable to place before the court of five judges the material evidence of his case. He went before the Supreme Court judge.

"What is the meaning of the words 'actual value' is the question of going into the merits of the case. I will not answer the question, but I will answer all those questions and matters which you argued before me, but I will not alter the order I have already made." Mr. Justice McDonald declared.

SEEKS LAW RULING

His Lordship said he was not unduly deterred from the case by the decision of the court. He would not like to see any obstacles placed in the way of lawyers which might defeat the purpose of his own case. He would not alter the order of the decision of a single judge could be of no permanent value unless I made certain that it was a case of law. Mr. Maclean feels doubtful if he can get into the Court of Appeal unless I do that. I also realize the position of Mr. O'Halloran, and I can assure him that all points of law raised here are open to him in the Court of Appeal," Mr. Justice McDonald said.

On the order confirming the judgment made by His Lordship the procedure in the Court of Appeal will be based, and as counsesession of the Legislature. The case going to appeal here in January is one by which the Bishop of Victoria seeks to lower the assessment of St. Louis College, constructed here at a cost of $58,000 and reduced by the Court of Revision to $30,000, and further, to demand the judgment of Mr. Justice McDonald to $25,000. The basis of the assessment of St. Louis College was that it was a "public building," being the "actual value" of the building.

Mrs. Dickinson's Saturday evening dancing class will hereafter be held in the Philharmonic Hall. Many of the younger citizens have been taught to dance by Mrs. Dickinson.

A race in 14-foot dinghies took place yesterday afternoon from Jones' boat-house to Point Elice bridge and back, between Richard Copeland and Alexander Gabriel. Copeland, having the superior boat, won by a short length.

The deputy sheriff was yesterday called upon to visit the residence of an ex-M.P.F. for the purpose of leaving an execution on goods and chattels. The master of the house threw him out, and this morning had to appear in court for his indelicacy.

The wet weather has interfered with building all over the city, but notwithstanding this handicap, the excavation for the new site of The Colonist office has steadily proceeded and will soon be ready to receive the foundation walls.

MINARD'S "KING OF PAIN" LINIMENT

URGES $20,000 ALLOWANCE CUT

E. B. Andros Says He Will Clip That Much in Twenty Minutes at City Hall

"I'll have $20,000 in twenty minutes after I get into that City Hall," declared E. B. Andros, candidate for Mayor of Victoria, in a vigorous address to upwards of 250 electors gathered in the auditorium of the Girls' Central School last night.

"There's no use of talking about saving money unless something is done to cut out the deadwood," Mr. Andros continued. "That firm of auditors the City Council engaged to show it how to run the City Hall recommends that all auto allowances should be reviewed. I'll review them in about nine minutes, and then I'll cut them off, the candidate declared, amid a storm of applause.

AUTO ALLOWANCES
Mr. Andros was speaking of the $4,700 that the city spends each year in allowances for automobiles used by its employees. He also attacked the system of permitting employees to have telephones at the city's expense. "These are some of the smaller matters that have got to be attended to. It takes a man with courage to do it, but it has got to be done. I am not tied down to any group and I don't intend to be," he said.

The question of reducing the salaries of employees of the city was raised by Mr. Andros, who charged that a campaign of opposition had been waged against him and the leaders of the campaign had stated to the employees that Mr. Andros was out to further reduce the salaries of the civic servants.

"It's a lie. Andros is not out to cut salaries of the workingman. He is out to prevent any further reductions in wages that will be $150 a month," Mr. Andros declared.

"Why is it?" asked Mr. Andros, "that employees of the City Bureau are out on the streets campaigning against me? They are paid by the grant given to the bureau by the citizens of Victoria and have no right to be using the time for that purpose," Mr. Andros charged. "I'll show you about that when I get into the City Hall," he added.

RECENT BOND DEALS
The candidate for the mayoralty inferred there had been too much trucking and trading with the bond issues in the single figure of $100,000, not at all satisfied with the manner in which those bond issues were handled. It would appear to me as if some of the members of the council were anxious to trade bonds so that their friends might get commission on both selling and buying. It is something that requires a little thought.

Mr. Andros made a stinging attack on the methods of selling bonds this year. He charged that Mayor Leeming had encouraged the sale of $200,000 worth of bonds, and had later sold a block of $300,000 to private concerns at 93. This, he said, was a direct loss to the city of $24,000. "It was criminal," Mr. Andros declared, "and yet they are going around today abusing me like a pickpocket because I am simply telling the truth."

PUBLICITY GRANT
His reference to the publicity grant touched a responsive chord and the audience greeted his statement with continued applause when he said "Here's one thing that the way they spend money. It cost the bureau sixty dollars to shoot the rapids at Campbell River with a couple of movie cameras. F. Scott, accompanied by his wife and daughter, have left to visit relatives in Seattle before returning to their home in San Francisco."

Mr. Cecil Abbott, of Victoria, returned home on Saturday after a few days' visit to the Island, as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Borradale.

Mrs. C. A. Morris, of Victoria, has returned home after some days on Salt Spring, as the guest of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. A. J. Eaton, of Ganges.

Miss Lyons has arrived from Vancouver and has taken a position on the staff of the Gulf Islands Hospital, Ganges, vacated recently by Miss Stanbridge.

Miss Di Crofton, of Ganges, will leave today for Vancouver, where she will be the guest for a week of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Farquhar.

Inspector Spiller, of Prince Rupert, is spending a month on the Island as a guest at Harbor House, Ganges.

Miss M. I. Scott has returned to Duncan after spending the week-end at Ganges on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Scott.

More than twenty guests were present at the tea hour last Friday afternoon, when Mrs. Charles Mackintosh, of Ganges Harbor, entertained her visitors at a tea table shower given in honor of Miss Di Crofton. The two children, June Mitchell and "Wiggle" Springfield, dressed respectively as a daffodil fairy and fairy prince, conveyed the presents, which included china, silver, linen and everything pertaining to a tea table to the bride-elect. The room and table were decorated with bronze and white chrysanthemums. Among those present were Mrs. Fred Crofton, Mrs. Frank Crofton, Mrs. A. Inglis, Mrs. J. Mitchell, Mrs. C. Springfield, Mrs. Desmond Crofton, Mrs. A. J. Eaton, Miss E. Walter, Mrs. A. B. Elliot, Mrs. R. Rush, Misses D. Moorhouse, Gladys Borradale, Claire Wilson, Doreen and Denise Crofton, Nora Turner, Betty Abbott, Shirley and Edna Mitchell, Betty Kingsbury, Edna Morris and others.

Mr. Graham Shove will leave Ganges today for Vancouver, where he will be a guest of Mrs. De Milie.

Mrs. T. Burketts, of St. Mary's Lake, is a patient in the Jubilee Hospital, Victoria.

Daughter—No, Jack is not rich; in fact, he can hardly raise the money to keep going.

Mercenary Ma—Then I'd tell him not to keep going.

Would Press Further Gas Price Reduction

Continued pressure for further action in the lowering of gasoline prices was urged in a letter from the Mayor of Maple Ridge, received and filed at a meeting of the Equilibrium Council last night. The communication expressed thanks to those who had supported Maple Ridge's action which resulted in having the dumping duty removed.

In connection with this matter the council received replies to two communications from the Imperial Oil Company and the Union Oil Company. These letters had been a request to have the companies reduce their price of gasoline to the municipality in view of a cheaper offer made by another company. Both companies stated they were unable to do so, and the communications were tabled for future action.

Miss Grace B. Middleton and Mr. Wilfred R. Smith
Married at First Baptist Church Last Evening—To Live Here

A large number of friends of the bride and groom congregated at the First Baptist Church last night for the wedding of Grace Bernice, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Middleton, 422 Gorge Road, and Mr. Wilfred Rodney Smith, second son of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Smith, 902 Cook Street, which was solemnized at 8:30 o'clock. Rev. George A. Reynolds officiating.

For the occasion the church had been beautifully decorated by Mrs. E. B. McLean, assisted by Mrs. A. Coles and Mrs. A. Middleton. An archway of greenery and yellow chrysanthemums had been erected, under which the bride and groom stood during the ceremony, flanked by baskets filled with yellow and mauve chrysanthemums. Yellow flowers and greenery draped the choir stalls, and the guests were tied with yellow chrysanthemums and yellow tulle.

Miss Scowcroft played the wedding marches, and as the register was being signed Mrs. Mary McIntosh sang "God Has Made Two Hearts as One."

PRETTY BRIDE
The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a lovely frock of white silk lace cut in slim lines. Small frills of lace covered the gown from neck to hemline. It had a Bertha collar and the waist was finished with a narrow girde of white chiffon velvet tied in a bow with long ends on one side interspersed with knots of orange blossoms. A cluster of orange blossoms was arranged at the throat, and she wore a string of crystal beads, the gift of the groom. Her veil of embroidered silk net was arranged to a Juliet cap of lace, and fell in a long train, and she carried a shower bouquet of pale pink sweet-heart roses and white carnations and ferns.

BRIDAL ATTENDANTS
The maid of honor was Miss Verna Middleton, sister of the bride, who wore a charming gown of apple green georgette and lace. The long full skirt was made with godets of lace and the back of the waist was finished with a large bow of georgette above cascades of georgette edged with lace. She wore a wide brimmed hat of matching green felt trimmed with buttercup yellow velvet ribbon tied in a large bow on one side, and carried an arm bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums and ferns.

The bride's cousin, Miss Hazel Clyde, also attended her in a frock of pale yellow georgette made on princess lines. It had a short jacket with elbow sleeves edged with ostrich feathers. She wore a pale yellow felt hat to match, trimmed with yellow ribbon, the brim being underlined with mauve, and carried an arm bouquet of mauve and yellow chrysanthemums. The flower girl and Lovely Decorations Arranged

A pretty wedding was solemnized on Saturday evening at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. W. C. Wilson, D.D., when Gertrude Lillian, only daughter of Mrs. A. Price, of Vancouver, and of the late Sergeant-Major Price, became the bride of Mr. James Sutherland Scoular, second son of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Scoular, of Happy Valley.

The bride looked very charming in her bridal gown of eggshell satin, and with a lovely bridal veil held to her head with a coronet of orange blossoms, and she carried a bouquet of pink carnations and roses. Miss Minnie Scoular was bridesmaid, wearing a becoming frock of yellow silk net trimmed with touches of green, and her hat was of the same shades. Her bouquet was of yellow chrysanthemums. Mr. William Purdie was best man.

RECEPTION AT HOTEL
Following the ceremony, which was attended by a large number of friends of the bride and groom, a reception was held at the Dominion Hotel, where the bride and groom were assisted in receiving by Mrs. Price, the bride's mother, who looked charming in a gown of black velvet trimmed with pale pink georgette, and wore a corsage of pink roses and carnations. Mrs. J. Scoular, the groom's mother, wore a becoming gown of blue crepe. The bride and groom were seated at a table with silver beaded, and had on suite. Her corsage bouquet was of pink chrysanthemums and carnations.

ATTRACTIVE DECORATIONS
As the bride and groom entered the room to receive the good wishes of their friends, the wedding march was played by Miss Jessie Smith. The supper table was decorated with a three-tier cake and lovely flowers, and soft candlelight added to the table's attractive appearance. The room had been decorated with profusion of chrysanthemums and ferns, the arrangements having been the handwork of Pollock Bros.

The bride and groom left on the midnight boat for Seattle via Vancouver. For traveling, the bride wore a smart frock of black and white silk crepe and a blue overcoat trimmed with a beautiful fur collar.

GOOD CITIZENS ARE NECESSITY

J. W. Gibson Urges Teaching of Civic Education in Schools of Today

"Canadian citizenship will some day be the finest and most cosmopolitan in the world, and for that reason should be greatly encouraged in our schools," J. W. Gibson, of the Provincial Department of Education, told members of the Gyro Club yesterday. Mr. Gibson's address was the first of a series of events to be held in the city this week in commemorating Education Week in British Columbia.

Mr. Gibson explained that Education Week was an experiment in British Columbia and that it would be a successful one. It had been carried out in the United States for several years with considerable success.

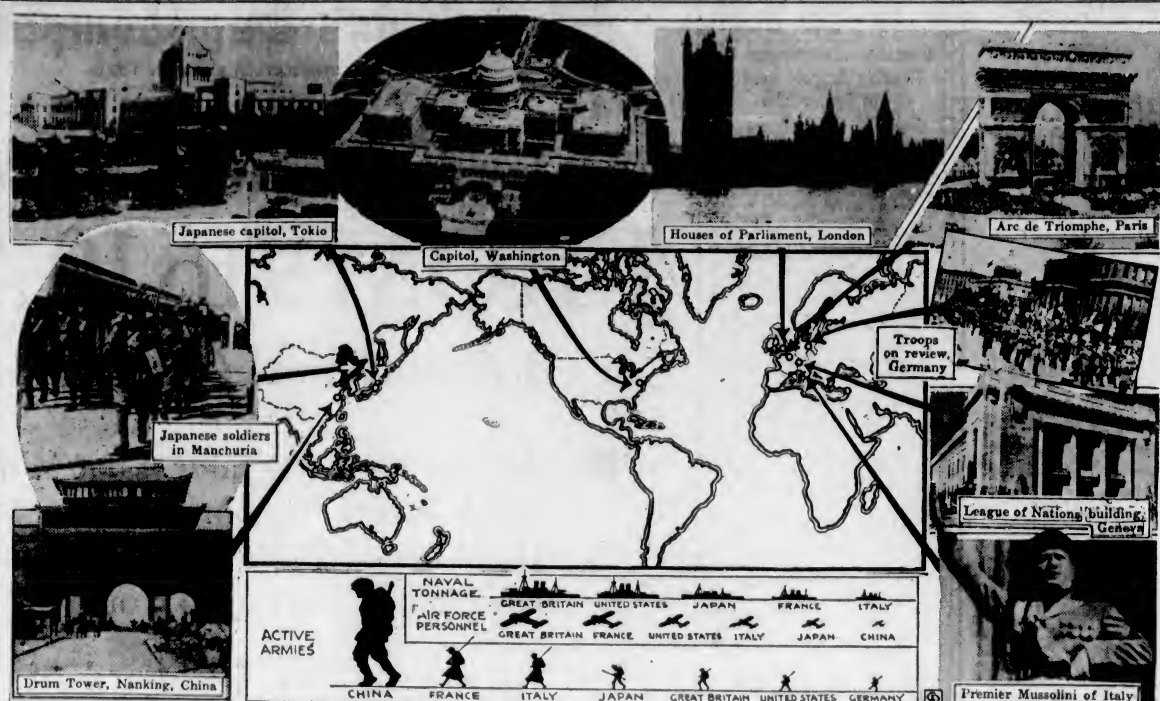

REVIEWS FIRST SCHOOLS
He opened his address with a brief review of the introduction of public schools in North America and Canada. The first school to be supported by the people was built in 1642 in Boston. The early purpose of education, he quoted, was to educate the children because the state would suffer if the children were not intelligent. In 1846 Dr. Ryerson sponsored the first educational bill in Ontario, while sixty years ago yesterday the first free school was built in British Columbia.

In 1865 the school budget for Vancouver Island was $10,000, and four years later the people first paid school taxes. In 1872, 534 pupils were enrolled in the schools between the ages of five and sixteen years, out of an eligible list of more than 1,700 students in the province. At this time there were twelve school buildings publicly owned.

ONE-QUARTER AT SCHOOL
Today, Mr. Gibson continued, 25 per cent of the people in Canada are attending schools. Of this number, 85 per cent are in elementary schools, 13 per cent in secondary schools and 2 per cent in colleges and universities. These figures served to illustrate the importance of elementary schools.

There are 84,000 teachers employed in 32,300 schools in the Dominion, said Mr. Gibson. The annual cost of education in Canada is $165,000,000, or approximately $66 per pupil. An interesting sidelight of the benefits of education, Mr.

Impasse Over Armament and Manchuria Imperils Peace

DISARMAMENT proposals are in a sad way as France and Germany, in Europe, look with suspicion on each other, due to a recrudescence of military parties in Germany, and Japan's occupation, in Asia, of Manchuria. Photographs and arrows above indicate centres of discussion, where means of arriving at a common basis must be settled. Diagram shows comparative size of naval tonnage, air force personnel and active armies. China's army is shown as largest, but probably is the weakest. One of the most serious and costly armaments in a past for the security of France.

Gibson noted, was a recent survey which showed that for every distinguished man in the country who had no education there are four who have elementary training, 100 who attended high school and 1,000 who are university graduates. This served to indicate that education was a good investment, he asserted.

EDUCATION TOO FORMAL
Education in the schools, Mr. Gibson believed, was too formal, and for that reason the major things of education were overlooked. By "formal," he meant that students were too much engaged in learning subjects. Recently a commission in the United States surveyed the educational situation, setting out the major points of education which should be taken care of in the schools. These included health, command of fundamental processes, vocation, civic education and duties of citizenship, use of leisure, and ethical character.

"We look to schools to give us good citizens for the future," Mr. Gibson said, "and education must go forward in times like these. There was necessity for conservation of citizenship as well as of natural resources, he pointed out. In conclusion, he declared that children must be considered first, and to do this it is necessary to get the best measure of efficiency out of the schools. He urged full support of every movement for the promotion of education.

West Coast Suffers From Heavy Rainfall
R. S. Gallop, who has arrived in the city from the West Coast, coming by way of Jordan River, voices an appeal for aid in restoring communication with that section of the Island, which has become isolated, he says, owing to the heavy rains which have cut off the telegraphic lines and otherwise interfered with communication.

He states a move will be made by the residents to have the Dominion Government give some assistance in the matter of repairs to the telegraph line connecting with Victoria by the southern route.

One of the most dramatic court trials ever depicted in a picture takes place in the Warner Bros. production, "Two Against the World," starring Constance Bennett, which is now showing at the Capitol Theatre.

The court is a replica of one of the criminal courts in Los Angeles and is technically perfect in every detail. The entire court proceeding also is conducted in exactly the same manner as a real trial, even to the selection of the jurors.

The trial scene forms the smashing climax to an intensely dramatic story in which a beautiful young society girl takes the blame for indiscretions of her married sister in order to shield her from a domestic scandal, and also to save her brother from a murder charge.

"Tiger Shark," starring Edward G. Robinson, is an epic of the Southern Seas, filmed among the tuna fisheries of the Pacific. Richard Arlen is in a strong supporting role.

What Today Means to You
By MARY BLAKE

"SCORPIO"
If November 22 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 7:30 a.m. to 8:30 a.m., from 3 p.m. to 6 p.m. and from 8:30 p.m. to 9:45 p.m. The danger hours are from 9:10 a.m. to 10:40 a.m. and from 2:30 p.m. to 4 p.m.

November 22 influences would indicate that it may be necessary for you to make a decision that will greatly influence the course of your future. It may be in business, at home, and it may even have to do with an affair of the heart. Whatever its nature, you will probably decide rightly if you approach the problem with reason and judgment.

The child born on this November 22 will take little interest in his studies. He will be much more interested in the world and events going on about him. Travel would be most educational for a child of this type. The child will enjoy people, will make friends readily and will be very considerate of all with whom he comes in contact. The child born on this day will be blessed with an active body as well as an active mind.

If November 22 is the date of your birth, you are probably a very quiet, modest and retiring person. You no doubt have a most kind nature and are possessed with a desire to help others at every opportunity. Early in life you were perhaps fired with a desire to accumulate wealth and you fancied yourself a business magnate, vastly wealthy and wielding great power. Life has probably not treated you so kindly but it has not embittered you. You are inclined now to sit back quietly, shake your head and wonder just what this life is all about. At the same time, you are content in the knowledge that you have kept out of its more strenuous currents and that in its more quiet waters you have passed a comfortable existence.

Born on November 22, your most effective work probably would be done in the ministry, as a teacher or in some field of research. There is more than a little of the artistic about you and you would derive much pleasure from having a hobby that would lead you to pursue the study of music or painting. Children delight you and you are happy with them. Both men and women born on this date make ideal mates. The women take great pride in their homes and spend many hours in beautifying them. They are unusually fond of flowers, and love to garden.

Tommy was sitting on the step, looking very unhappy.
"What's the matter?" asked a neighbor.
"Well, I didn't care about mamma giving my old trousers to the Salvation Army," answered Tommy, "but I had both pockets full of worms to go fishing with."

"MISCHIEF" COMING TO EMPIRE FRIDAY
Remarkable strides forward were made by British pictures during 1931. Just at the end of the year "Mischiefs," a British and Dominion production, set the seal upon all the farcical comedies of the year. The story is one of the familiar Ben Travers story, where will be principally remembered for "Rookery Nook" and "Plunder." The new pic-

Miss Gertrude Dutton tells why she makes her Devil's Food Layer Cake with Magic Baking Powder

"I know from experience," says the cookery expert of Western Home Monthly, "that Magic makes most baked dishes look and taste better. Its uniform leavening quality gives dependable baking results."

And Miss Dutton's praise of Magic is seconded by the majority of dietitians and cookery experts throughout the Dominion. They use Magic exclusively because they know it is pure, and always uniform.

Canadian housewives, too, prefer Magic. In fact, Magic outsells all other baking powders combined. For luscious layer cakes, light, tender biscuits, delicious pastry—follow Miss Dutton's advice. Use Magic Baking Powder.

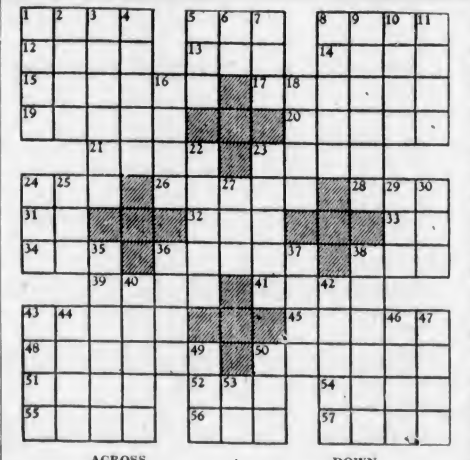

Devil's Food Layer Cake
1/2 cup butter
1 1/2 cups sugar
3 eggs
1 cup milk
2 1/2 cups pastry flour (or 2 cups and 3 table-spoons of bread flour)
1/2 teaspoon salt
3 teaspoons Magic Baking Powder
1/2 cup vanilla
1/2 cup chocolate, melted

Cream butter thoroughly; add sugar slowly. Add beaten eggs, mix thoroughly. Add flour sifted with baking powder and salt, alternately with milk; add vanilla and melted chocolate. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Put into 3 greased layer cake tins and bake in moderate oven at 350° F. about 30 minutes. When cool, put together and cover thickly with Chocolate or White Icing (recipes are in the Magic Cook Book).

FREE COOK BOOK—When you bake at home, the new Magic Cook Book will give you dozens of recipes for delicious baked foods. Write to Standard Brands Ltd., Fraser Ave. and Liberty St., Toronto, Ontario.

FINE PROGRAMME FOR ANNIVERSARY

Special Services and Grand Concert Held at St. Aidan's United Church

The thirty-ninth anniversary of the founding of St. Aidan's United Church was commemorated in the parish on Sunday and Monday with special services on the Sabbath and a grand concert last evening. Large congregations attended the Sunday services, conducted by Rev. William Allen, of Wilkinson Road, and Garden City United Churches, while an enthusiastic gathering applauded an excellent programme of entertainment at last night's concert.

Special selections were offered on Sunday by the church choir conducted by Frank Jennings, while Mrs. T. Southern was the soloist at the morning service.

VICTORIA WOMAN HAS NO COUNTRY

Deserted by American Husband, She Has No Claim to Canadian Dominion Here

Victoria has a woman without a nationality. Legally she has no status that would entitle her to receive relief from the corporation. The case was discovered when the woman applied to the city relief headquarters to obtain assistance. She was married in Victoria to an American, and thereby, under British law, she took the nationality of her husband, who has deserted her. She cannot enter the United States because that country claims she is not an American citizen, because she never resided there after her marriage. Canadian authorities say that she is an American citizen, and therefore they cannot assist her.

In the meantime she is destitute, and efforts are being made to bring the matter before the courts here under the Naturalization Act, and a Victoria barrister has volunteered to do that. She may be accorded the right to assume British nationality if the court decides in her favor.

A dear old woman, over ninety years old, had never once seen the sea, having lived always in the heart of Yorkshire. So her grandchildren saved up to give her a treat. They managed to get the old woman to Scarborough; they sat her down in front of the sea.

"There, Grannie," they said, "what do you think of the sea now?"
The old woman gazed for a few moments without replying, then she rasped: "Is that arl it does?"

SAINTS AND NANAIMO XI PLAY TO TIE

Mainlanders and Up-Island Club Battle to Two-All Draw

NANAIMO, Nov. 21.—St. Andrew's retained their position at the head of the Pacific Coast Football League by virtue of a 2-to-2 draw here yesterday with Nanaimo, before 2,000 spectators. Although having an edge on the play for the first twenty minutes the Saints were lucky to share points, Nanaimo being more aggressive throughout. Referee Craig was honest during the entire game. Features of the game were the brilliant defence play of Edmunds, local back, and a goal scored by Surtees for the Saints in the first half.

Kicking off, St. Andrew's attacked, and Newman missed open goal with only Blawett to beat. Keeping up pressure they forced three corners, but could not score. Nanaimo's passing was poor and the team seemed disorganized with Knight, regular centre half, absent from the line-up. After twenty minutes' play, Watson led the movement and had hard luck with a long drive. Ten minutes later Bevis bungled and Surtees, securing, drove in a beautiful shot, completely beating Blawett, giving the Saints the lead. Nanaimo fought hard to equalize, White hitting the side of the net twice. The visitors staged another attack, Blawett being called upon to save twice. The interval arrived with the Saints leading, 1 to 0.

NANAIMO ATTACKS
On the restart, Nanaimo swarmed over the Saints, bombarding Blawett. Watson was badly fouled while dribbling through, but Referee Craig ignored the sin for a penalty. Keeping up the pressure, Nanaimo equalized when White caught the rebound off the post and scored after fifteen minutes' play. The Saints were awarded a free kick in the penalty area and Stephens scored. Nanaimo again attacked, and with five minutes to go, McGregor made a run and scored the tying goal. Nanaimo continued to attack until the final whistle.

DAVID BONE NIGHTINGALE JACK

Arsenal's inside right and England's inside right against Wales when the team played to a scoreless draw, stands six feet in his socks and is one of four generations, starting with David's grandfather, who was a footballer for Bolton Wanderers more than thirty years ago. David himself started with Plymouth Argyle, was transferred to Bolton Wanderers, won two English Cup medals with the Wanderers in 1923 and 1926, and a year later was transferred to Arsenal for $30,000. It was the first time Mr. and Mrs. Bioggs had entered the big supercinema, and the magnificence of everything made them stare. Above their heads the whirring of an electric propeller—for freshening the air in the building—caught their ears.

"Wonder what that is?" whispered Mrs. Bioggs, looking up.

"Oh, that," replied her husband, feeling for his pipe, "that's the one of them 'film fans' we've read so much about!"

LEAFY HANDED BAD SETBACK BY RANGERS

New Yorkers Win by 7-0 Score—Hawks Nose Out Canadiens

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—New York Rangers gained a share of revenge for their defeat in the Stanley Cup finals last Spring by overwhelming Toronto Maple Leafs yesterday evening with the highest score of the young National Hockey League season, 7 to 0. The Rangers, opening their home season, were distinctly "on" their game, and they got most of the breaks while the Leafs merely played hard, fast and rather ragged hockey of the typical early season brand. A crowd of 14,000 attended.

In the first period Boucher, Bill Cook and Voss drove through for three quick goals. Andy Blair, Toronto center, sent the fourth Ranger goal into the net by accident as he tried to clear the puck and credit was given to Osmundsen. In the second period, Lorne Chabot, Leaf goalie, wandered too far from his net and when Murdoch bodychecked him, as this year's rules permit, he re-saluted with a slap on the head. Both were penalized. Charlie Conacher stepped into the Toronto net and stood off a furious attack, making six official saves.

New York Sub-Voss, Slebert, Dillon, Somers, Keeling, Murdoch, Osmundsen, Heller. Toronto Subs—Gracie, Blair, Doran, Clancy, Horner, Primeau, Conacher, Jackson. Referee—Jerry Goodman and Eugene Daignault.

Summary
First period—1, Rangers, Boucher (Somers-Johnson) 6:00; 2, Rangers, W. Cook (P. Cook-Boucher) 7:20; 3, Rangers, Voss (Slebert-Dillon) 11:41; 4, Rangers, Osmundsen (Keeling) 13:07. Penalties—Day (2), Horner (2), Johnson, Heller, Doran.

Second period—3, Rangers, W. Cook (Boucher) 18:14. Penalties—Conacher, Murdoch (2), Keeling, Chabot, W. Cook. Third period—6, Rangers, Johnson (Somers-Dillon) 21:17; 7, Rangers, Dillon (Heller-Somers) 22:40. Penalty—Cotton.

HAWKS WHIP CANADIENS
CHICAGO, Nov. 21.—Chicago's surprising Black Hawks outkicked Montreal Canadiens here yesterday evening and sent the Flying Frenchmen down to a 2 to 1 defeat in a National League contest.

They would have won by a wider margin but for the brilliant goalkeeping of Hainsworth. The Hawks were too fast for the team supposed to pack more sheer speed than any team in hockey, but they managed to break through for goals only in one furious assault in the second period. Tommy Cook rammed in the first after a passing bout between Jenkins and McPadden had carried play in front of the Montreal net.

Two minutes later Vic Ripley stepped alone through the Canadian defence to tally another. Howie Morenz got one goal back, taking Johnny Gagnon's pass to score from close range, but the flying Canadian centre was unable to get another, though his wild sallies brought the small crowd of 4,000 to its feet many times.

Line-up follows:
Canadiens—Hainsworth, Mantha, Burke, Morenz, Joliat, Gagnon, Sube-Goudreau, Mondou, Leduc, Leprie, Rochelle, Carron, G. Mantha, Raymond.

Chicago—Gardiner, Abel, Graham, Gotschick, Thompson, Couture, Sube-Ripley, March, Holmes, Boston, Cook, Rommes, McFadyen, Coulter, Jenkins.

Officials—Roden and Cameron.

Summary
First period—No scoring. Penalties—Carson.

Second period—1, Chicago, Cook (Jenkins-McFadyen) 4:05; 2, Chicago, Ripley 6:35; 3, Montreal, Morenz (Joliat) 7:00. Penalties—Leduc, Cook.

Third period—No scoring. Penalties—Boston.

M.C.C. Dismissed For Sixty Runs In Second Innings

Lisle Nagel Takes Eight Wickets for Thirty-Two Runs as Visitors Collapse—Australians Have Ten Wickets to Net 125 Runs

MELBOURNE, Tuesday, Nov. 22 (CP).—A strong Australian eleven that is almost the same team that will take the field in the test matches, went to bat in their second innings today, virtually sure of victory over the touring M.C.C. team. Thanks to the mastery bowling of Lisle Nagel, who took eight M.C.C. wickets yesterday for 32 runs, leading to complete collapse of the English batsmen, Australia had only 125 runs to get with a full ten wickets in hand to beat M.C.C.

M.C.C. were all out in their second innings for 60 runs, yesterday, on top of a first innings of 382. The tricky pitch and Australian bowling were too much for the famed English bats.

Scores at the end of the third day's play were: M.C.C., 282 and 60 (Nagel eight for 32, Osmundsen two for 4); All Australia, 218 (Bradman 36, O'Brien 46, Larwood four for 54, Bows three for 63, and Voe two for 36).

WINS TEST PLACE
Nagel, Australia's giant fast to medium pace bowler, earned himself a place on the Australian team for the first of the classic test matches by his remarkable bowling against the Englishmen today. He took only ten runs, including three maidens, to gain eight wickets for 32. He was ably supported by Osmundsen, who took the remaining couple of the demoralized English wickets for 4.

The dismal showing of the English batsmen was well displayed by the totals of 10 runs for Herbert Sutcliffe, joint holder of the world's double century partnership; 3 for Wyatt, 6 for Leyland and Allen, 12 added Jack Caxwell and Darrell Bissell to their line-up, and therefore will be facing a different machine, and will have to be at top form. Ribbons are the only unbeaten quintette in the senior division, and are hoping to keep their record intact at the expense of the lumbermen. Since acquiring Caxwell and Bissell, C.P.S. have trimmed Fifth Regiment and the Beavers, and hope to put a stop to the Ribbons' winning streak.

EXPLANATION FOR SUNDAY'S RIPLEY CARTOON

The State of Jefferson—On November 8, 1858, the "Pike Peakers," after organizing the new County of Arapahoe in what is now Colorado, petitioned the Government of Washington, D.C., asking for the establishment of a separate government under the name of the "Territory of Jefferson." The demand was later approved by the request to give the new unit the status of a State, without passing through a territorial form. In October, 1859, the elected delegates met at Auraria and adopted a constitution, drafted the region, provided for a legislature, and in the end elected W. Steele Governor of Jefferson. Due to conflicting claims on the part of the surrounding territories, the State of Jefferson had only a brief life. On February 28, 1861, President Buchanan signed the Colorado Bill, in which the new unit was given the status of a territory under the name the State bears today.

RIBBONS AND C.P.S. CLASH THIS EVENING

Senior "A" Cage Squads to Meet in Feature Game at High Gymnasium

Blue Ribbons and C.P.S., two of the city's best senior "A" squads, will tangle tonight at the Victoria High School, in the feature fixture on the Victoria and District basketball programme. Originally the games were scheduled for tomorrow evening, but owing to the gymnasium being used for other purposes, league officials were forced to switch their schedule. The three games carded for Friday night, at the same court, have also been postponed until the following week. Two preliminary attractions are on the programme. J.B.A.A. Blues will tackle Harmony in the opener in the women's senior "B" section while Normal School faces J.B.A.A. in the second game in the men's senior "B" division. Both these clashes should provide plenty of action, and are expected to be fine appetizers for the feature tilt. Blues took the measure of Harmony last time out, and hope to repeat their performance, while Normals are going along at a fine pace and are anxious to humble the oarsmen.

Blue Ribbons will be meeting C.P.S. for the first time since they added Jack Caxwell and Darrell Bissell to their line-up, and therefore will be facing a different machine, and will have to be at top form. Ribbons are the only unbeaten quintette in the senior division, and are hoping to keep their record intact at the expense of the lumbermen. Since acquiring Caxwell and Bissell, C.P.S. have trimmed Fifth Regiment and the Beavers, and hope to put a stop to the Ribbons' winning streak.

STRONG ELEVEN TO OPPOSE ENGLAND IN FIRST MATCH, DEC. 2

Thirteen Players Selected to Appear in Tests—Lisle Nagel Awarded Place—Don Bradman Expected to Furnish Great Power at Bat—Woodfull Chosen Captain

SYDNEY, Australia, Nov. 21 (CP).—With the inclusion of six-foot-four Lisle Nagel, whose sensational bowling demoralized the Marylebone Cricket Club of England team at Melbourne today, Australia has completed a most formidable team for the classic test match series with the touring M.C.C. team that opens here on December 2.

Nagel is new to test match cricket, but he was not bit daunted by the famous bats he encountered in the resumption of play in the match between All-Australia and M.C.C. today, taking eight wickets for 32 runs on a tricky pitch.

The feat was enough to ensure Nagel's place on one of the strongest teams, Australia, home of cricket giants, has ever produced to challenge England's Play continued yesterday with several first and second round matches being carried in both the open and handicap divisions.

All the seeded teams in the doubles will play tomorrow and a high standard of badminton is expected from the competitors. Great interest hovers over the outcome, as both stars are playing at top form and a close struggle is predicted. In the only other singles match carded, Ray Swayne will meet Daphne Allen.

Doreen Swayne, seeded No. 2, won her first round match in the women's open singles by defeating Mrs. Zolotohlin in straight sets with comparative ease, 11-3, 11-1. Robinson and Connolly advanced in the men's doubles by trimming Tremaine and Diespecker, 15-8, 15-4, while Mrs. Tingling and Mrs. Gibson downed Kay Swayne and Kay Hall in extra sessions, 12-15, 15-8, 15-8. Keen competition was witnessed in the remainder of the games in the handicap divisions.

Playing Strong Game For Arsenal XI

DAVID BONE NIGHTINGALE JACK Arsenal's inside right and England's inside right against Wales when the teams played to a scoreless draw, stands six feet in his socks and is one of four generations, starting with David's grandfather and ending with David's son, Mr. Bone.

Kicking off, St. Andrew's attacked, and Nestman missed open goal with only Blewett to beat. Keeping up pressure they forced three corners, but could not score. Nanaimo's passing was poor and the team seemed disorganized with Knight, regular centre half, absent from the line-up. After twenty minutes' play, Watchorn led the movement and had hard luck with a long drive. Ten minutes later Bevis bungled and Scurie, securing, drove in a beautiful shot, completely beating Blewett, giving St. Andrew's the lead. Nanaimo fought hard to equalize, white hitting the side of the net twice. The visitors staged another attack, Blewett being called upon to save twice. The interval arrived with the Saints leading, 1 to 0.

NANAIMO ATTACKS
On the restart, Nanaimo swarmed all over the Saints, bombarding Rabbit. Watchorn was badly fouled while dribbling through, but Referee Craig ignored the alarm for a penalty. Keeping up pressure, Nanaimo equalized when White caught the rebound off the post and scored after fifteen minutes' play. The Saints were awarded a free kick in the penalty area and Stephens scored. Nanaimo again attacked, and after five minutes to go, McGregor made a run and scored the tying goal. Nanaimo continued to attack until the final whistle.

In a second replay of the fourth qualifying round for the Association Football Cup, St. Albans defeated Ayr, 1-0, at Manchester City. Cambridge University blanked Newport, 8-0, in a Rugby match.

It was the first time Mr. and Mrs. Blaggs had entered the big super-cinema, and the magnificence of the picture was a new experience for them. Above their heads the whirring of an electric propeller—for freshening the air in the building—caught their ears.

"Wonder what that is?" whispered Mrs. Blaggs, looking up.

"Oh, that—" replied her husband, feeling for his pipe, "that'll be one of them 'film fans' we've read so much about!"

LEAFY HANDED BAD SETBACK BY RANGERS

New Yorkers Win by 7-0 Score—Hawks Nose Out Canadiens

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—New York Rangers gained a share of revenge for their defeat in the Stanley Cup finals last Spring by overwhelming Toronto Maple Leafs yesterday evening with the typical early season blunder. A crowd of 14,000 attended.

In the first period Boucher, Bill Cook and Voss drove through for three quick goals.

Andy Blair, Toronto centre, sent the fourth Ranger goal into the net by accident as he tried to clear the puck and credit was given to Osmundsen. In the second period, Lorne Chabot, Leaf goalie, wandered too far from his net and when Murdoch bodychecked him, he retaliated with a slam over the head.

Both were penalized. Charlie Conacher stopped in the Toronto net, and stood off a furious attack, making six official saves.

New York Subs—Voss, Siebert, Dillon, Somers, Keeling, Murdoch, Osmundsen, Heller.

HAWKS WHIP CANADIENS
CHICAGO, Nov. 21.—Chicago's surprising Black Hawks outkicked Montreal Canadiens here yesterday evening and sent the Flying Frenchmen down to a 2 to 1 defeat in a National League contest. They would have won by a wider margin but for the brilliant goalkeeping of Hainworth.

The Hawks were too fast for the team supposed to pack more sheer speed than any team in hockey, but they managed to break through for goals only in one furious assault in the second period. Tommy Cook rammed in the first after a passing bout between Jenkins and McDonald.

Two minutes later Vic Ripley stepped alone through the Canadian defence to tally another. Howie Morenz got one goal back, taking Johnny Gagnon's pass to score from close range, but the flashing Canadian centre was unable to get another, though his wild sallies brought the small crowd of 4,000 to its feet many times.

Line-up follows:
Canadiens—Hainworth, Mantha, Burke, Morenz, Joliat, Gagnon, Suba—Gaudreault, London, Leacock, Lepine, Rochelle, Caron, G. Mantha, Raymond.

Chicago—Gardiner, Abel, Graham, Gotschick, Thompson, Couture, Suba—Hopley, March, Holmes, Bestrom, Cook, Romnes, McFadyen, Coulter, Jenkins.

Officials—Roddan and Cameron.

M.C.C. Dismissed For Sixty Runs In Second Innings

Lisle Nagel Takes Eight Wickets for Thirty-Two Runs as Visitors Collapse—Australians Have Ten Wickets to Net 125 Runs

MELBOURNE, Tuesday, Nov. 22 (CP).—A strong Australian eleven that is almost the same team that will take the field in the test matches, went to bat in their second innings today, virtually sure of victory over the touring M.C.C. team. Thanks to the mastery bowling of Lisle Nagel, who took eight M.C.C. wickets yesterday for 32 runs, leading to complete collapse of the Englishmen, Australia had only 125 runs to get with a full ten wickets in hand to beat M.C.C.

M.C.C. were all out in their second innings for 60 runs, yesterday, on top of a first innings of 282. The tricky pitch and Australian bowling were too much for the famed English bats.

Scores at the end of the third day's play were: M.C.C., 282 and 60 (Nagel eight for 32, O'Brienham two for 4); All Australia, 318 (Bradman 36, O'Brien 46, Larwood four for 54, Bows three for 63, and Voss two for 56).

WINS TEST PLACE
Nagel, Australia's giant fast to medium pace bowler, earned him- self a place on the Australian team for the first of the classic test matches by his remarkable bowling against the Englishmen today. He took only ten over, including three maidens, to gain eight wickets for 32. He was ably supported by O'Brienham, who took the remaining couple of the demoralized English wickets for 4.

The dismal showing of the English batsmen was well displayed by totals of 10 runs in the men's senior "B" division. Both these tussles should provide plenty of action, and are expected to be fine appetizers for the feature test, which took the measure of Harmony last time out, and hope to repeat their performance, while Normanside, going along at a fine pace and are anxious to humble the osarsmen.

Blue Ribbons will be meeting C.P.S. for the first time since they settled for the line being at least. A tricky pitch was a factor in the English collapse.

"Was that man of much assistance in our great political movement?" "No," replied the senator. "He is one of those people who will subscribe to your opinions, but not to your campaign fund."

The State of Jefferson—On November 6, 1858, the "Pike Peakers," after organizing the new County of Arapahoe in what is now Colorado, petitioned the Government of Washington, D.C., asking for the establishment of a separate government under the name of the "Territory of Jefferson." The demand was later amended by the request to give the new unit the status of a State, without passing through a territorial phase. In October, 1859, the elected delegates met at Auraria and adopted a constitution, districted the region, provided for a legislature, and in the end elected R. W. Steele Governor of Jefferson. Due to conflicting claims on the part of the surrounding territories, the State of Jefferson had only a brief life. On February 28, 1861, President Buchanan signed the Colorado Bill, in which the new unit was given the status of a territory under the name the State bears today.

RIBBONS AND C.P.S. CLASH THIS EVENING

Senior "A" Cage Squads to Meet in Feature Game at High Gymnasium

Blue Ribbons and C.P.S., two of the city's crack senior "A" quintettes, will clash tonight at the Victoria High School, in the feature fixture on the Victoria and District basketball programme.

Originally the game was scheduled for tomorrow evening, but owing to the gymnasium being used for other purposes, league officials were forced to switch their schedule. The three games carded for Friday night, at the same court, have also been postponed until the following week.

Two preliminary attractions are on the programme. J.B.A.A. Blues will tackle Harmony in the opener in the women's senior "B" section, while Normal School faces J.B.A.A. senior "B" division. Both these tussles should provide plenty of action, and are expected to be fine appetizers for the feature test, which took the measure of Harmony last time out, and hope to repeat their performance, while Normanside, going along at a fine pace and are anxious to humble the osarsmen.

STRONG ELEVEN TO OPPOSE ENGLAND IN FIRST MATCH, DEC. 2

Thirteen Players Selected to Appear in Tests—Lisle Nagel Awarded Place—Don Bradman Expected to Furnish Great Power at Bat—Woodfull Chosen Captain

SYDNEY, Australia, Nov. 21 (CP).—With the inclusion of six-foot-four Lisle Nagel, whose sensational bowling demoralized the Marylebone Cricket Club of England team at Melbourne today, Australia has completed a most formidable team for the classic test match series with the touring M.C.C. team that opens here on December 2.

Nagel is new to test match cricket, but he was not a bit daunted by the famous bats he encountered in the resumption of play in the match between All-Australia and M.C.C. today, taking eight wickets for 32 runs on a tricky pitch.

The feat was enough to ensure Nagel's place on one of the strongest teams, Australia, home of cricket giants, has ever produced to challenge England's supremacy at the old game. And Australia needs her best to withstand the English bid for recovery of the mythical ashes, won by Australia on English playing fields two years ago.

YOUTH AND EXPERIENCE
A great combination of youth and experience makes up the Australian team that was announced tonight. There are nine members of the victorious Australian team of 1930-31. Three of the others earned their laurels in the test match series against South Africa here a year ago, and the thirteenth and last of the group from which the eleven for the test games will be chosen is Nagel.

Nagel is a Victoria cricketer. He is twenty-four years of age. He bowls right-handed, medium to fast. His performance was the more astonishing today because he has done little of importance since he took six wickets for 35 runs in a state match with Australia, and four for 45 against Queensland last season.

Don Bradman, holder of the highest "innings" score ever amassed in test match cricket, 334 runs, is on the list, the dispute about his writing activities settled for the time being at least. The Aussies will again be captained by W. M. Woodfull, cagy cricketer who led them to success in England.

The seven others who were on the winning invasion of England and back in the lists are Stanley McCabe, A. P. Kippax, T. Wall, W. H. Ponsford, Clarence Grimmett, W. A. Oldfield and V. V. Richardson.

THREE STEP UP
J. Fingleton, H. Ironmonger and W. J. O'Reilly are the trio who step up into blue riband competition on the strength of their showing in the South African-Australian test matches a year ago when Australia easily won each of the five matches. Ironmonger was the leading bowler of the series, his total being 31 wickets for 296 runs, an average of just under ten runs per wicket.

The Australians from whom the eleven will be selected for each test match are: W. M. Woodfull, Don Bradman, Stan McCabe, A. Kippax, T. Wall, W. H. Ponsford, J. Fingleton, C. V. Grimmett, H. Ironmonger, Nagel, W. A. Oldfield, W. J. O'Reilly and V. V. Richardson.

BRADMAN TO LEAD BATSMEN
The batting strength of the Australian team will again be led by Bradman, thirty-four-year-old batsman who holds the record for the best test match average 139, and has also achieved the highest single innings score of 334. These two feats were accomplished when Australia toured England in 1930. On that occasion the first game had been won by England, the second by Australia, and the third and fourth were drawn. In the fifth and "rubber" match at Lord's, Australia won the game by an innings and 39 runs, and on that occasion Bradman contributed 232.

W. M. Woodfull captained the Australian team last year, and in the batting averages was second high mark, with 57. W. H. Ponsford and A. P. Kippax were also high, with 55 and 54.

Stan McCabe had the best bowling average for the visitors, and is chosen again this year. Clarence Grimmett earns his place through the bowling analysis as does Wall, whose average of 45 runs to each wicket was creditable.

R. Ryley, 1; R. Ford, 0.

BILL PEDEN AND AUDY WIN MINNEAPOLIS RACE

Local Rider and Montreal Partner Outfinish Rivals

Peden and Audy Put On Great Spurt to Win Another Six-Day Bike Race—Thomas and Lands Finish Second With McNamara and Crossley Third

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 21 (AP).—William ("Torchy") Peden, of Victoria, and Jules Audy, of Montreal, broke the triple tie that had existed up to the last hour of the race to win Minneapolis' second six-day bicycle race here tonight.

Early this evening Peden-Audy, Thomas-Lands and McNamara-Crossley were tied for first place in mileage, with the Canadian team trailing the McNamara-Crossley combination slightly on points. When the big spurt for the important points started the Maple Leaf representatives, with

"Torchy" Peden riding like a demon, began to steadily improve their point standing, gradually overhauling their nearest rivals to win by a lap and over 400 points from Thomas and Lands, who finished second.

McNamara and Crossley were third, followed by Van Slambrouck and Zach and Fielding and Schaller, who were tied in mileage and points. The final standing:

TOWNSEND OUTSLUGS PETROLLE

Vancouver Boy Captures Slugfest From Fargo Flyer Before 3,000

TORONTO, Nov. 21 (CP).—Blonde Billy Townsend, the belting kid from Vancouver, slashed his way to a ten-round decision over Frankie Petrolle, second section of the Fargo Express, in one of the grimmest ten-round struggles local boxing enthusiasts have seen in years, tonight.

In a real slugger's battle, with dynamite-laden fists ever handy, Townsend drilled the Fargo flyer with a stinging left jab and a terrific right-hand punch which shook Petrolle to his heels half a dozen times.

But the twenty-three-year-old Vancouver lad took plenty from his stocky little opponent. Time after time the Fargo lad ripped short punches to Townsend's midriff. There was a sore patch above Billy's kidneys, a patch which reddened under the continual pounding of Petrolle. Townsend's face and eyes were swollen too, from those stinging jabs of Frankie.

But like the game little fighter he is, Townsend took it all and handed it back freely.

A knockout loomed in that round and the crowd roared for the kill, but it was not to be.

A gallant Fargo boy weathered the storm and was punching back at the bell. Townsend weighed 141 1/2 to his opponent's 145.

In a slow, uninteresting semi-final, Alan Poston, Vancouver, outpointed Sammy Farber, New York. The crowd booed the affair for most of the ten rounds.

About three thousand attended.

"There seems to be a penalty provided for every kind of theft but stealing a man's daughter."

"There's a penalty for that, too."

"I'd like to know what it is."

"Hard labor for life!"

Some Prominent Personages in the Golfing World

THE season just passed has been a mighty fine one for golfers—both of the championship variety and plain, ordinary divot-diggers. Records have been broken—championship won by newcomers, while all the world knows how Ross Somerville won the United States amateur and young Gordon Taylor, of Montreal, ascended to Somerville's Canadian crown. Some of those prominent in the past season are depicted above. No. 1 shows Willie Lamb, sturdy pro of the local Uplands club, who won the Ontario open championship, and then followed it up by successfully defending his Quebec open title. It was the first time a golfer had held the open title of both provinces in the same year. No. 2 shows Miss Margery Kirkham, the Montreal girl who holds the Canadian ladies' title, the Quebec championship and is also champion of Montreal city and district. No. 3 is Lex Robson, of Winnipeg youth, who is Manitoba open, amateur and Winnipeg city champion and rated as one of the finest prospects in Canadian golf. He bowed to Somerville in the Canadian after a stern fight.

British Sport Shots

By WILLIS ENTWISTLE

HERE are some of the players who took part in the international soccer match between Wales and Scotland at Edinburgh, which was won by "gallant little" Wales. Williams (4), the Everton full back, was in the Welsh eleven. Thomson (2), Everton left half back, Gray (3), Rangers full back, and Dower (1), Third Lanark centre forward, were on the Scottish eleven. Incidentally Thomson was the player who scored Scotland on the downward path as he scored the first goal for Wales by making a mischievous past his own goalkeeper.

There was much shuffling of all out for promotion. "We must go up this time. It will be fatal if we don't, especially after failing last year," said an official. "His progress is remarkably good this season, especially when it is remembered that they are playing under strength. For several weeks they have been deprived of the services of Jimmy Hart, their centre forward. The lad is one of the most unlucky chaps in the game. When at the peak of his form with East Stirling last season he had a breakdown in health and was unable to assist his team toward the end of their great fight for promotion."

As a boy, Douglas Duncan played for Old Aberdeen School, and along with Willie Cooper, of Aberdeen; Percy Dickie, of St. Johnstone, and Norman David, late of Aberdeen, was one of an Aberdeen schoolboys' team that won the Scottish Schools' Cup. Along with David he played for two years in the Scottish Schoolboys' International team.

Then he went to Aberdeen Richmond. He was a junior only a season, when, along with Jack Watson, now of Keith, he went on trial to Hull City, and both were retained.

It was Duncan's goals that enabled Hull City to make a big splash in the F.A. cup competition three seasons ago. Need of cash caused Hull City to reluctantly place him on the transfer list in the course of last season. Birmingham were hot on his trail. They watched him for six successive Saturdays, and then decided to do no business.

Shortly afterward Mr. George Jobey, the Derby County manager, got on the job. He watched Duncan twice. Then he got his transfer for a fee said to be £3,000.

It is since going to Derby that Duncan has come to the fore. In the opinion of some good judges, he is just as effective at outside-left as Sammy Crooks on the right. He had a day out at Highbury against Arsenal, and led John and Parker, of the Arsenal, a merry dance.

Every week brings English inquiries to Easter Road, the home of Edinburgh Hibernians. Since the season started five of Hibs regular men have been under observation by English clubs.

Northampton would like both Clark and Wilkinson, the backs; West Ham, Blythe, the goalkeeper; and Preston North End, Langton and McFarlane, the wing halves. No mention of a forward. That's significant when it is common knowledge that it's the Easter Road attack that's doing the damage.

It has been stated that the directors will not part with any players that hang on to certain men, but if a good offer came along for Blythe it would be given the fullest consideration. Hibs have an excellent deputy in Johnny Hills, the ex-Yorker keeper. This lad is far too good a man to be going idle.

Hibs officials and players make no bones about the fact that they are

Leading Stocks at Eastern Exchanges Hold Fairly Steady

NEW YORK, Nov. 21 (AP).—Wall Street's crystal gazers today were evidently unable to conjure up any clear-cut picture of what was likely to happen in the foreign debt situation this week and security markets were again all but neglected.

Stocks tended to follow a slow downward drift, over the course of which a bit of short covering was distributed. Closing averages represented another small net loss, but with volume at 61,716 shares the market could hardly be said to have departed from its current policy of watchful waiting.

Quiet firmness characterized the first hour. However, any inspiration which leaders might have derived from the recent absence of selling pressure was side-tracked when Radio common began a fairly brisk decline on news of the Supreme Court consent decree. This stock, with a few others, lost more than a point.

Radio's extreme reaction of 2 points was cut to 1-3/4 net. It was probably assumed by many traders a substantial part of the stock to be distributed under the agreement by General Electric and Westinghouse to their shareholders would find its way to market, and pressure against this favorite of rosy days was steady. Westinghouse was off 1-8 net and General Electric lost 3-8.

The vitality content of the bond market, either by weight or volume, was at its lowest in several years today, and price movements generally were meaningless. Sales total dropped to $5,534,000, par value, the smallest aggregate since February 1, 1927.

Irregularly lower levels prevailed in obligations of Great Britain, Finland, Norway and Cuba, while bonds of Germany were moderately easy and those of Australia were heavy. Some of the Canadians were down from 1 to 2 points. French loans improved. Most high grade United States corporate issues maintained a fairly firm front. United States Government obligations sagged a trifle in local trading.

WHEAT PRICES DRIFT QUIETLY

Lack of Export Business Depresses Values Fractionally at Winnipeg

WINNIPEG, Nov. 21 (CP).—Wheat futures drifted quietly lower on the grain market here today, with operations consisting mainly of routine transactions. Lack of export business over the week-end induced the easing of values, and at the close, values were 5-8 to 3-4 cent lower.

A strong Liverpool market was ignored here, and the usual opening flurry over futures settled into a steady decline. Closing prices were: November, 47 1/8; December, 45 1/2; May, 45 1/8; July, 45 1/8.

A few old contracts comprised the total export over the week-end. Unfavorable news continued to come from the Argentine, but this, too, was ignored by local traders.

Barley was quiet, with little offering in sight. Some activity was seen in oats and barley, in the case of grains pit, but generally, trading was quiet, prices declining in sympathy with wheat.

CHAPTER XXIII

"Judy," Elton Day said, "you think I played a rotten trick on Jenks, don't you?"

"I don't know," Judy replied, leaning against the orange stand counter.

"Well, I didn't. He's a chiseler."

"A chiseler?"

"Yes. He gets an act for as little as he possibly can. You're worth every cent he's going to pay you, and then some. If nothing else, it's worth the money to him to be sure you don't take any other jobs. Because you could get other radio jobs now, Judy."

"How do you know?"

"I do know. It's my business to know. It's my job to find out how an act of mine is getting along."

"An act of mine? You, Judy Allison, working for Elton Day. No use clouding it with any words or evasions or excuses. Elton Day is your employer, really; he got you the job with a trick; he got you more money with a trick, and yet you can do nothing but accept it."

"You don't like the way I do business, do you, Judy?"

"No."

"Do you think I like it?"

"His voice was earnest, honest, for the first time since Judy had met him."

"Listen, Judy. I told you I hate this business. I do. I hate pulling strings and playing politics and being a chiseler like some of the others. But it's the only way I know to get what I've got to have. I can't save money, Judy. Never could. Unless I get more money than I can spend. And now I'm sure of more than I thought I could get. And Jenks will get value for what he's paying. Don't ever doubt it, Judy. The show will pull profits and more profits for him. You mustn't feel that he's being cheated. Because he isn't. He's used to doing business that way, that's all. And I had to meet him at his own game. No other way. If I talked to him, just said, 'We're worth more,' he'd laugh at me and at you. I tell you it's true, Judy. Every word of it!"

"Yes," she said dully. "I suppose so."

"But you don't really think so. You think you're under obligations to me and you don't want to be."

"Do you blame me?"

"Of course I don't. You've got a right to think anything you like, Judy. There's plenty wrong with me. I know that. But this time I'm on the level. Honestly."

"Yes."

"Won't you say something else?"

"He was actually pleading, Elton Day, the unapproachable, was pleading with a Judy Allison of contract. Good-bye, Miss Allison."

"How do you know?"

"I do know. It's my business to know. It's my job to find out how an act of mine is getting along."

"An act of mine? You, Judy Allison, working for Elton Day. No use clouding it with any words or evasions or excuses. Elton Day is your employer, really; he got you the job with a trick; he got you more money with a trick, and yet you can do nothing but accept it."

"Listen, Judy. I told you I hate this business. I do. I hate pulling strings and playing politics and being a chiseler like some of the others. I tell you it's true, Judy. Every word of it!"

"You've a Right to Think Anything You Like, Judy."

Hiawatha to understand things that he—whose job was words—could not put into any but halting, broken phrases.

"There's nothing else to say. Except 'Thank you.'"

"And you don't mean that."

"Of course I do. The money is going to help my family a lot. And having a job for a year—it's more than I ever counted on. So, of course, I must thank you."

"Must?" he said eloquently, bitterly. "That's just it. 'Must!' Not because you want to. Not because you've changed a bit in the way you think about me. Just because it's the thing you ought to do."

She was silent. Elton, moving restlessly, stared at himself in the long mirror back of the counter, straightened his perfect tie, smoothed his immaculate lapels. Now the momentary look of despair, she was gone. He was the Elton Day she was used to seeing, smooth, slender, his chin set at just the right angle, his eyes confident and untouchable.

"Well, let's go, Judy," he said casually. "No use standing here. Shall I drive you home? I'll get a taxi."

"No," Judy said. "I've got to send a telegram."

"Of course. Well, I'll see you tomorrow, then. And don't lose your pleading with a Judy Allison of contract. Good-bye, Miss Allison."

Now Judy realized that she had news, news that would make her mother and father happy, make them send for the neighbors, make them telephone to cousins and aunts to say "Judy's doing wonderfully in Chicago, on the radio. She just got a new contract, and—"

Listlessly, she sought a telephone office. Slowly, she wrote, "Just got new contract. A hundred a week for a year. I'll be sending some home every week. Please buy a new dress with this mother. Love. I'm very happy." She wired $50 out of the $200 Jenks had given her as a bonus for signing her contract. Then she went to Elsie's office to tell Elsie what had happened.

She found Elsie perturbed, almost unpleasant at first. "What's the matter?"

"Thought you were going to call me up."

"I couldn't, Elsie. I was busy."

"Oh. Dick?"

"No. I— Look, Elsie. She produced the contract. And Elsie, businesslike, knowing, ran through it hurriedly, read it a second time, then whistled, long and low.

"Judy! You're a millionaire! You're set for life! Here, woman! Shake hands! Dance a Highland fling! Do something, anyhow!"

Judy forced a smile.

"It is nice, isn't it?" she said.

"Nice!" Elsie mocked her. "Nice! Yeh, and the Grand Canyon's a nice little thing, too! Nice? Hey—Mike! Tell the boss I'm taking the afternoon off. Got things to do. Got business. Got to go to Africa for the week-end. You hear me? Here, Judy, is my hat on straight? Is it? Is it? It would be, well, come on, woman! Come on! We've got to celebrate! Gee! A hundred a week!"

It was like that for a half hour, with Elsie talking, laughing, almost shouting; with Judy answering in monosyllables, only once in a while. Until, in the cool depths of the big motion picture house, Elsie turned suddenly, whispering, "You're not tickled a bit! What's wrong with you, anyhow, Judy?"

"Nothing. Oh, nothing."

"Don't lie to me! What's it all about?"

Hesitatingly, then more rapidly, Judy poured out the story. How she watched Elton force Jenks into giving her the contract; how she let him make Jenks think she was a party to Lona's scheme; how she knew when she should have spoken.

"Huh!" said Elsie suddenly. "I see right now that a movie is no place for me, at all. Come on. Let's go buy a hat!"

"But—"

"Buying a hat," said Elsie sagely. "Is the best way in the world for a girl to get over feeling sorry. I'll prove it."

And, in the hat store on State Street, Judy realized that Elsie was right. Spending $20 for a new, elegant hat—knowing there would be a $100 cheque waiting for her Saturday, knowing there would be a cheque just like it waiting every Saturday from now on for a year, for fifty-two long weeks—Judy knew that money is a good thing, that security in a job is a thing that changes your viewpoint and makes you see new values. And soon she was agreeing with Elsie that what Elton Day had done was not crickety, hardly fair; but that perhaps his specious excuse was right.

"He looked different," Judy said.

"When he was trying to explain I got a feeling that he was trying to be somebody else. Trying not to be the way he's always been before. I almost felt sorry for him. Honestly, Elsie."

"Huh! Elsie jeered. "Feel sorry for him? Didn't he try to cheat you out of that job?"

"Yes, but then he cheated to get it for me."

"What?"

"Yes, Elsie. I'm all mixed up. I'm worried, Elsie. That girl—that Burdette girl. She'd do anything to get even with me because I got the job. Because—"

Judy flushed, but went on—"because Elton Day has been so interested in me."

Elsie stared. "You go too fast. You're way ahead of me. Better tell all, Judy."

So Judy did.

About the audition, and what was done to make sure that she got the job. About Lona, and her threats that were more suggested than said. About the sudden, almost incredible, change in Elton Day. About the luncheon with Jenks, and the way Day made Jenks sign a contract he had no intention of signing.

Elsie said, softly, "Poor kid!"

"That's not it. I've no right to cry about anything, Elsie. I'm getting money, and I've a good job, and as far as my mother and father are concerned I'm a success. I can't tell them about any of this. They wouldn't understand, anyhow. But it's Dick who worries me."

"Why?"

"That girl Lona was trying to see Jenks today. To tell him something. Suppose Lona should prove the audition was wrong? It's Dick they'll blame, not Elton. And I've a contract. They'll have to keep me on the programme now, no matter what happens. But if Dick loses his job—"

"He won't," Elsie said confidently. "Not Dick Mason. He's the best announcer they've got."

"That won't help a bit if they think he cheated to get a job for me."

"Then you'd better tell him all about it. So he can cover up."

"I can't tell him, Elsie. I can't tell him at all."

"Why not?"

"Don't you see? He did want me to get the job, and he did help me all he could. And now if I let him see that it was a trick of Elton Day's that really did it—and I didn't tell him right at first; I've kept it to myself all this time—don't you see how he'd feel?"

"Yes. You're right. Never pays to tell a man anything, anyhow."

"That isn't it, Elsie. I've never lied before in my life. But every time Dick says anything that lets me know he's really proud about helping me I feel like a liar for not telling him what really happened."

"You shouldn't. He did help. Maybe you'd have got the job anyhow."

"That's no answer. Maybe I would have. Maybe I wouldn't. But either way, I know and you know and Elton Day knows how I really got it. And suppose that Burdette girl finds out!"

Burgess Bedtime Stories

Cunning Meets Cunning By THORNTON W. BURGESS

A contest of the wits is set when cunning is by cunning met. —Old Mother Nature.

Reddy Fox is known as one of the most cunning of all the people of the Green Forest and the Green Meadows. He comes of a family famous for wit and cunning. This also is true of Lightfoot the Deer and his family. There are times when Lightfoot is quite as cunning and clever as Reddy, and there are times when Mrs. Lightfoot is even more cunning.

Mrs. Lightfoot had need of all her cunning. Yes, she had need of every bit of cunning she possessed. She had a precious secret to keep from certain hungry people who, if they suspected it, would do their best to find it out. She knew that one already suspected it, and that one was Reddy Fox. She knew that he suspected that she had babies carefully hidden in a thicket in the Green Forest and that, although she had driven him away once he would return. She suspected that when he did return Mrs. Reddy would be with him. They would be very cunning in their efforts to find those precious babies.

Reddy got to his feet and walked out in plain sight of Mrs. Lightfoot, and she must be just as cunning in keeping her secret.

To begin with, she had each of those little fawns move to another part of the thicket which was their home. There they crouched with their necks stretched out along the ground and their ears laid back. Lying motionless, they might readily be mistaken for two small logs on which the sunlight or moonlight, as the case might be, broken by the leafy branches, made little spots. In reality they were the white spots of the little coats.

Then Mrs. Lightfoot went to another thicket not too far away, yet not too near, and there she browsed or lay down and chewed her cud, but always with nose, ears and eyes on guard. It was there that Reddy and Mrs. Reddy found her. They discovered her before she did them, and for a while they watched and noted that she never went far from a certain spot in that thicket. Reddy and Mrs. Reddy looked at each other knowingly. Those babies must be hidden in that part of the thicket.
